Diese #vatniksoup handelt von der Ukrainisch-Orthodoxen Kirche des Moskauer Patriarchats (UOK-MP) und darüber, wie pro-Kreml Propagandisten, Oligarchen und Anwälte ihre „Verfolgung“ als Mittel verwenden, um Unterstützung für die Ukraine und ihre Regierung zu verringern.

Ukraine says it seized assets of billionaire accused of aiding Russia

By Max Hunder
April 14, 2023 11:42 PM GMT+3 · Updated a year ago

KYIV, April 13 (Reuters) - Ukraine's security service said on Thursday it had seized more than 3.5 billion hryvnia ($96 million) worth of assets belonging to exiled billionaire Vadym Novynskyi, but a representative for Novynskyi said he was no longer their owner.

The Security Service of Ukraine (SBU) has accused Novynskyi of "aiding" Russia, which invaded Ukraine last year. The representative, who did not want to be named, on Friday said the billionaire denies the charge.

Chief Executive Officer Julia Kiryanova of Smart Holding, one of the entities which has had some of its assets seized, told Reuters on Friday that the company was transferred on Dec. 1 from Novynskyi to a trust owned by citizens of Cyprus, and was no longer connected to him.

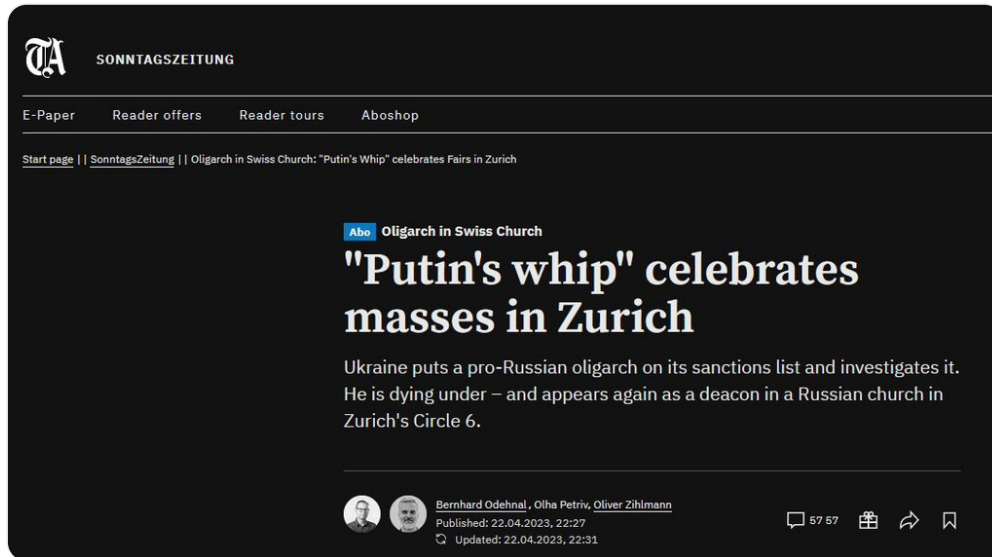

In its statement, the SBU security agency said Novynskyi had tried to avoid the sanctions by transferring his assets to affiliated commercial structures.

Kiryanova dismissed the SBU's assertions as "nonsense" and said Novynskyi had transferred his assets to the trust before the sanctions were put in place.

Novynskyi ist auch Priester in der Russisch-Orthodoxen Kirche (ROK) der Heiligen Auferstehung in Zürich, Schweiz (Kirill arbeitete übrigens auch für den KGB in der Schweiz).

Offiziellen Angaben zufolge besitzt er auch noch einen russischen Pass.

Amsterdam hat falscherweise behauptet, die UOK-MP habe sich „im Mai letzten Jahres [2022] vollständig von Moskau getrennt“. Die kanonische Einheit, sogar ihre Unterordnung unter die ROK ist in den Statuten der UOK-MP. Die UOK-MP hat sich nie komplett unanhängig erklärt.

Diploma of Alexy the Second, by the grace of the Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia, Metropolitan Filaret of Kiev and All Ukraine

We, the humble Alexy II, by the mercy of God, the Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia, is at a bath with all the Evely bishops of the Russian Orthodox Church - the Moscow Patriarchate, who gathered at the Bishops' Council of 25-27 October 1990 in the Holy Danilov Monastery in the God-Sweet City of Moscow, guided by the desire to have a blessed peace, God's God's love of God.The Church, to take into account the desire and petition of her Eternal Archpastaries, who gathered on 9 July this year, 1990 in the Bog-Sweet City of Kiev to discuss and decide their ecclesiastical life on the basis of independence and independence,

We bless through the present Gramota our mighty and the Living Spirit to be from now on the Orthodox Ukrainian Church independent and independent in its administration, and to you, unanimously elected on July 9, 1990, the episcopate of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church, its Primate. We trust that the Ukrainian Orthodox Church will be governed according to the Divine and sacred canons and the customs of the Cafolitic Orthodox Church and the definitions of this Archaeist Council. We pray with one heart and one mouths the Shepherd of the Lord for the revelation of heavenly help and blessings of the Holy Ukrainian Church.

The Ukrainian Orthodox Church, united through our Russian Orthodox Church with the One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, without a conciliar decision of the entire Orthodox Catholic Fullness, but does not change anything about the dogmas of faith and the holy canons.

The Compeable and Almighty Life-Science Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit, may always strengthen the Holy Orthodox Ukrainian Church, may she be married by glory and honor, and may she bless her being to save the pious tidy.

Signed in the city of Moscow 1990, October 27 days

ALEXY, Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia

On October 28, 1990, Sunday, at the Divine Liturgy in the ancient Cathedral of St. Sophia in Kiev, His Holiness Patriarch Alexy II of Moscow and All Russia handed the Diplomatic to the Metropolitan of Kiev and All Ukraine Filaret.

Aber es gibt innerhalb der UOK-MP auch einige Priester, die verfolgt wurden: Eine Reihe von UOK-MP Priestern wurden wegen ihrer Kritik an der pro-Kreml Kirchenführung von der Liturgie ausgeschlossen, woraufhin sie ihre eigene NRO namens St. Sophia Bruderschaft gründeten.

Bob Amsterdam works his fees to perfection.

Our channel's sources in Washington say that there is considerable indignation in Republican circles about the policy of the UOC.

"We are all religious people. We will defend freedom of religion. For us, this is the main value. Religious persecution must stop", - precisely such messages, which are the result of counter-propaganda, are conveyed by Republicans to Ukrainian politicians. And any conversation on the topic of Ukraine now takes place through the prism of the events surrounding the UOC.

In our opinion, the battle for Law 8371 by the Office of the President has been lost. This round, with the support of Amsterdam, was won by Protodeacon Novinsky and the UOC Synod. The Ukrainian authorities underestimated the power and connections of the ecclesiastical-political wing in the UOC. The pressure on the Office of the President and the leadership of the Verkhovna Rada will increase.

We predict that there will be no positive vote on Law 8371.

Die sowjetischen & russischen Geheimdienste haben die orthodoxe Kirche oft für Geheimdienstoperationen & Propaganda benutzt, da der Westen es meidet, Kirchen zu schikanieren, weil dies wie ein Angriff auf Freiheit/Demokratie aussehen könnte. Davon haben Spione profitiert.

The FBI suspected an employee of the Russian Orthodox Church of recruiting agents for Russian intelligence services in the United States

The US Federal Bureau of Investigation suspected Dmitry Petrovsky, an employee of the Moscow Patriarchate's Department of External Church Relations, of working for Russian intelligence.

The FBI believes that Petrovsky, under the cover of the Russian Orthodox Church, was engaged in recruiting agents for Russian intelligence services among priests and parishioners of the Russian Orthodox Church and other Orthodox churches in the United States.

In May 2021, Petrovsky was searched upon entering the United States. Files related to Russian intelligence were found on his computer. Among the documents found were dossiers on well-known Orthodox priests in the US with details of biographies of their family members. The FBI believed that such information was necessary for Petrovsky to blackmail these people during the recruitment process.

One of the files found was marked "confidential." The FBI cited it in full in its warning. Thus, according to the agency, this document contained a description of the areas of cooperation between the Russian Orthodox Church and the Russian special services - SVR, GRU and FSB.

Russian troops kill Ukrainian priest who refused to convert to Moscow patriarchate

Renowned for his pro-Ukrainian stance, Stepan Podolchak, a Ukrainian priest, firmly refused the demands of the Russian occupation administration to convert to the Moscow Patriarchate.

In research on religious repressions conducted by Verstka, since the beginning of the Russian full-scale invasion, 43 instances of the targeted persecution of clergy have been recorded:

"As a result [of Russian persecution], in 18 cases, ministers were forced to flee the city, go underground, or completely cease activity. In 12 cases, they were forcefully expelled. In eight, they were taken prisoner, and in five, killed."⁵⁹

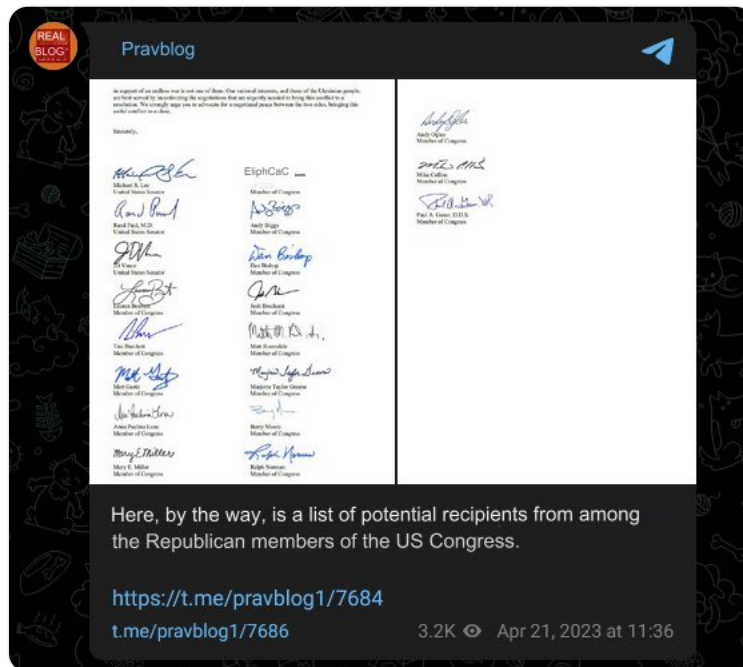

Ministers were pressured through their families, children, and close ones. It is a known fact that Russians kidnapped a priest's son and held him in a prison cell for weeks to pressure his father regarding his religious activity.⁶⁰

When they could not gather enough evidence to charge priests and pastors, the occupation authorities organized open provocations. Weapons and compromising materials implicating them in terrorist activities were planted on church ministers.⁶¹ Russian authorities have used this kind of provocation since the occupation of the Donetsk and Luhansk regions in 2014. For example, a supposed commendation from the Armed Forces of Ukraine, and literature with the alleged signatures of Ukrainian soldiers were planted on one pastor. Such falsified "evidence" has led to the arrest and violent torture of priests and their family members.

"My friend's son was taken prisoner. They beat him and tortured him with electricity. Then they let him go. A part of his body was twisted. When the boy returned home, his father did not even recognize him. He thought that some homeless person was standing in the yard."⁶²

Die Idee der „verfolgten Christen“ stammt wohl von kremlnahen Telegrammkonten wie „Pravblog“ & Alex Voznesensky (der mit dem russischen Geheimdienst zusammenarbeitet), die bereits April 2023 über den Einsatz von Religion als Waffe gegen die ukrainische Regierung sprachen.

In this regard, a question arises. Why don't the affected dioceses of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church send detailed letters about violations of the fundamental rights of believers to Congress? To the same representatives of the Republican Party? Yes, and finally, personally to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, Kevin McCarthy? By adding numerous videos of violations and harassment to the letters...

In our opinion, this would be a much more effective move than signing meaningless petitions to the Ukrainian authorities.

In this case, the algorithm for implementing the task may be as follows. Let's take, for example, the most problematic Ivano-Frankivsk and Khmelnytsky dioceses. They can publish the text of a standard appeal to US congressmen on their official websites, and then send corresponding letters from the e-mails of the dioceses to the e-mails of American politicians. Adding to them evidence of violations in video format, screenshots, etc.

A real opportunity to protect the positions of the UOC

Louisiana Congressman Mike Johnson was elected Speaker of the House of Representatives today.

If at the level of the leadership of the UOC there is still a desire not to imitate, but to really fight for the rights of believers, then one could officially appeal to Johnson with an appeal to pay attention to the violation of religious freedoms in Ukraine.

Judging by his political views, the new speaker could well take up the relevant topic for development. And, as you know, they listen to signals from the American government offices in Kyiv.

Bei der Empörung über „Verfolgung“ geht es nicht um Religionsfreiheit; 🇷🇺 hofft, die Unterstützung des Westens & der USA für die 🇺🇦 zu untergraben. Dabei wird Gesetzesentwurf 8371 nur deshalb abgewogen, weil die 🇷🇺-orthodoxe Kirche ein wichtiges Instrument des Kremls ist.

In Russia occupied Ukraine, in contrast, there is no religious freedom. All Ukrainian RO's have been forcibly closed, seized, and investigated by Russian intelligence services. Religious leaders and RO members are tortured, killed, imprisoned, and deported. The ROC-MP is the main beneficiary of this situation, absorbing formerly Ukrainian Orthodox congregations as well as buildings of other closed churches. The only option for Ukrainian RO's is to agree to become part of a Russian RO and to align with the Kremlin's views on the war.⁴ Few, if any, chose or are able to do so. As is well documented, Russia is engaged in an effort to erase Ukraine as a nation, a genocide. It has committed unspeakable war crimes and human rights violations and seeks to eliminate every trace of Ukrainian sovereignty and even its history, stealing children, art, historical relics, household appliances, farmland, and businesses. If Russia succeeds, all of Ukraine's achievements in religious freedom and democratic institutions will be lost.

Putin and Russian Orthodox Church forge an unholy alliance to take over Ukraine

Putin's Russia isn't just at war with Ukraine, it's at war with Christianity

Earlier this summer, an adviser to the mayor of Mariupol, Ukraine, posted that Russian soldiers had seized the city's Ukrainian Christian Evangelical Church of the Holy Trinity. After ruthlessly expelling the clergy, the staffer noted that as many as 30 troops remained in the building, at least in part because it provided a "human shield" for troops. The church is located just feet from occupied residential buildings.

The takeover of a Christian church might seem strange at first. What threat could a church filled with worshipping men, women and children pose to a modern army? But according to the Institute for the Study of War (ISW), this incident is "part of a wider systematic religious persecution campaign in occupied Ukraine."

While it has been grossly underreported in the U.S. press, Russia has been waging a brutal campaign against Christians and religious minorities in Ukraine.

Russian soldiers frequently threaten evangelical Christians in Ukraine, labeling them as "American spies" and "enemies of the Russian Orthodox people." One Russian soldier told an employee of a Christian institute in Ukraine "evangelical believers like you should be completely destroyed ... a simple shooting will be too easy for you. You need to be buried alive."

Liegt es daran, dass Ihr Mandant ein 🇷🇺 Staatsbürger ist, der als Priester in der 🇷🇺-orthodoxen Kirche tätig ist? Oder versuchen Sie, in den USA politische Stimmung zu machen mit dem krenlfreundlichen Narrativ der „religiösen Verfolgung“ in der Ukraine? Vielleicht beides?
