Es ist klar, warum Elon Twitter gekauft hat: sein Plan war es, unter dem Banner „Absolutismus der freien Meinungsäußerung“ (den es auf X natürlich nicht gibt) die Algorithmen so zu verändern, dass er politische Parteien fördern kann, die mit seinen Ansichten übereinstimmen.

Sprechen wir mal über „Redefreiheit“, über die die Trump-Regierung, besonderes Musk & Vizepräsident Vance, ständig schimpfen. Sie beschuldigen übrigens nur die EU der „Einschränkung der freien Meinungsäußerung“, weil EU Regulierung die EWB und Elon's Geschäfte bedroht.

Wenn Vance & Musk von „Meinungsfreiheit“ sprechen, beziehen sie sich nur auf soziale Medien. Andere [auch amerikanische ] Medien stehen VIEL schlechter da als die in der EU laut dem Press Freedom Index. Musk & Trump haben Menschen & Firmen auf zig Mio Euro verklagt...

Most of Musk's more than 160 posts about USAID have been responses to a handful of small but influential verified accounts, many of them using pseudonyms. The most popular – including posts from Wall Street Apes, Kanekoa the Great, Chief Nerd and Autism Capital – have been viewed hundreds of millions of times, amplified by Musk and his 216 million followers, according to X metrics. As the theories spread, they are repackaged, and in many cases added upon, to further the claims.

A review of the accounts' profiles reveals how a lengthy crusade to paint USAID as a malevolent force built up in recent years in relatively fringe internet circles, only to be suddenly elevated and acted upon by Musk. The pattern is similar to one that played out with the so-called Twitter Files in 2022, when selectively framed narratives and out-of-context internal documents were weaponized to fuel allegations of a grand government censorship conspiracy. And it is one likely to continue under Trump and Musk, who have histories of trafficking in falsehoods.

Leaked communications between Vladimir Sergienko, a naturalized German citizen, and "Alexei," a suspected FSB operative, show the extent of Russia's infiltration of the Alternative for Germany party. Their "active measures" included a plan to stop or slow delivery of German main battle tanks to Ukraine using frivolous litigation against the German government. It would only cost $93,000.
