In today's #vatniksoup and in the first edition of "Where are they now?", I'll do an update on some of your favorite vatniks around the world, and report on what they've been up to.

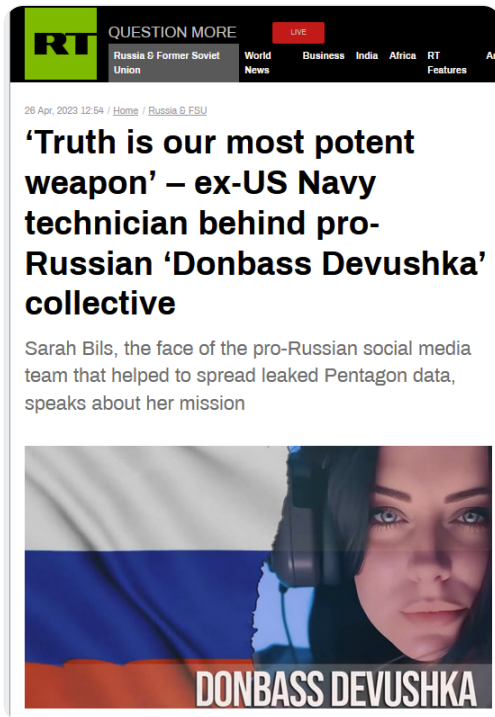

If there's someone or something you'd like to hear more about, let me know in the comments 🙌

Let's start with everyone's favorite former naval officer, Sarah "Donbass Devushka" Bills. She recently gave an interview to RT, where she doubled down on her previous statements, stating that "truth is our most potent weapon".

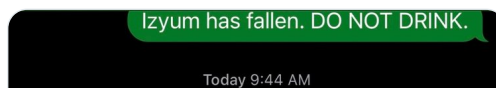

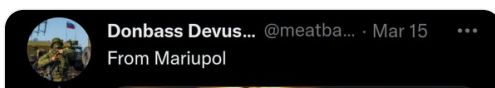

2/17

That's a weird statement coming from a person who faked to be a "poor woman from Lugansk", Latvian, Gazan, and so on.

Now, what's even funnier, that on 24 Mar 2022, she faked that her father was in Mariupol (thank you NAFO investigators!).

He was so sweet. He sent me a message asking how I was and when I told him that I had just had a nightmare, he asked me about it. Your dad is wondering

In the interview, she also said that "we [the DD channel] have native Russians among our ranks,as well as a diverse array of voices from around the globe".She also stated that their Telegram channel has grown by over 10 000 spectators. Sarah (and RT) also claims that #NAFO..

Watch out, they'll soon try to get "Five Eyes" trending!

In today's #vatniksoup, I'll introduce an American propagandist and podcaster, Donbass Devushka. She's best-known for her fake Russian identity, for her pro-Russian podcast, and for spreading false, pro-Russian narratives on social media.

There's also been buzz around Finnish oligarch Gennady Timchenko. Finnish Ministry of the Interior declared that the decision of Timchenko's Finnish nationality was done "by the book". Her daughter's Finnish passport was fast-tracked, too.
