In today's #vatniksoup, I'll introduce an American social media personality, Dominick "Dom Lucre" McGee (@dom_lucre). He's best-known for lying about absolutely everything, and for spreading QAnon-related conspiracy theories and disinformation on the Russo-Ukrainian War.

1/21

Based on Dom Lucre, Dom Lucre is a massively popular Renaissance Man, who's dabbled successfully in military, hip hop, financial advising, philanthropy, politics and of course "breaking narratives". Hell, he even wrote an (everybody)Wiki about himself!

Early Life [edit]

Dom Lucre also referred to as Dominick McGee Bom (March 23, 1994) in Columbia South Carolina. Dom grew up in North Augusta South Carolina, and attended North Augusta High School. During his time in high school, Dom began the goal of pursuing a career in the music business but took a strong liking to his history classes, specifically American history. Dom graduated from high school in June of 2013, he went to basic training for the United States Army during the same month. Dom enlisted in the Army because he wanted to serve his country and have a source of income to pursue a career in the music industry.

In 2014 Dom became Vice President of IVOS Records, during his time stationed at Fort Bragg North Carolina, Dom would often drive from Fayetteville North Carolina to Winston-Salem to meet with his label mates Hunter 6 Lettetz and Darren Hunter to travel to Atlanta GA for the record label during the weekends. Dom was honorably discharged from the United States Army in August of 2016. After his discharge Dom moved to Atlanta Georgia in December of 2016 to be closer to his career options. Dom gained thousands of followers on social media during his time pursuing success with Hip-Hop, IVOS Records currently has hundreds of thousands of listeners on their streaming profiles.

In January of 2017, Dom enrolled in Pennsylvania State University to pursue a college degree online while he worked on IVOS Records Dom has also obtained a brief education at Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania earning a certification in Corporate Finance.

In October of 2017 Dom founded a financial advising and credit restoration company named Credit Cadabra, Dom began to find a love for business and decided to move out of Atlanta Georgia in January of 2020 to Chattanooga Tennessee. Dom decided to move because Chattanooga had less competition in the finance industry compared to Atlanta.

Career [edit]

He is most known for his coverage of the 2020 United States Presidential Election. In November Dom was dissatisfied with the results of the election, this is when he decided to use his social media presence to express his distaste for the election results. Dom had 89 thousand Instagram followers when he began posting about his support for Donald Trump, His Instagram currently sits at 65 thousand followers. Dom stated this is because the majority of the music business embraces liberal influencers but offers the opposite for conservatives. Dom began gaining thousands of followers on his Facebook group Win The Win which he created on December 3, 2020.

His Facebook group quickly became Facebook's most active conservative group. Dom was featured in The New York Times for his Facebook group. His group was banned shortly after his New York Times Appearance. Prior to Dom's group being banned he created a Zello channel to communicate with his followers. The New York Times journalist that wrote the article on Dom's Facebook group Stuart A. Thompson also joined his Zello channel to monitor his coverage. Stuart reported his time with Dom's Zello channel on CNN during the month of February in 2021. The CNN article covering Dom's Win The Win Rally Zello Channel.

The report with CNN was covered by several other notable news outlets such as Yahoo News, NBC, and many more which even though his name was not mentioned, also increased Dom's notability. After Dom's news features his audience grew and he became a founding member of a non-profit Christian missionary called The Citizens Crusade. TCT provides restoration for the homeless communities of Chattanooga Tennessee. In March of 2020, Dom's company Credit Cadabra became the most searched and serviced financial advising or credit repair company in Tennessee.

Dom can be seen using his wealth to provide for the communities of Tennessee, during May of 2021 Dom became the State Director of Candace Owen's non-profit organization Bleixit Tennessee. Bleixit focuses on community work and educational values. Dom's ultimate goal is to run for a government seat, he is unaware when he wants to run he states "Winning is the goal for anyone who runs so I want to run at the right time when I run I won't lose because I will have understood what it takes to win."

Dom Lucre parted ways with Bleixit TN on March 24, 2022 due to him recruiting a member of the LGBTQ movement to his leadership team. After his separation, Dom began to go back to his roots of servitude. Dom introduced the "Credit Where Rent's Due" program that provides free credit repair for every homeless American. His new program has been the focus and highlight of his 2022 run. Dom has said that he will be preparing for the election in 2022 and do what he can to create a positive experience and outcome for the American people

All that cap to try to discredit me? You soy boys are so miserable. You keep keep me entertained daily, Penn State, I addressed that in about 8 spaces. I have to finish an internship I have every credit and more. Wtf I look like doing an internship? It's getting waived. I never had a non profit, everything I do for anyone is out my pocket. I know that's hard for losers like you to comprehend because you only think of what people can do for you. Credit Cadabra's success can be verified by looking up it's visitor history via an SEO history tracker. Do you know how I'm living? It's amazing 🤩 listen long story short. I'm here for a LONG time not a GOOD one. I'll see you tomorrow ❤️😭

He's actually been enrolled to Penn State since 2017, but hasn't graduated after 6½ years. They even kicked him out once. Dom's also claimed to have obtained a certificate from Wharton University, but there's absolutely no proof of any of this:

9/ Briefly back to the Wharton Certificate. In various bios, Mr. McGee claims to have obtained a "Certificate" from "Wharton University" in either 2019 or 2020. Sometimes he claims it is in Corporate Finance and other times Computer Architecture.

Mr McGee has also his own business, Credit Cadabra. The site's been referred to as the "Most Searched and Serviced Financial Advising Company", which doesn't really mean anything at all. Anyway, it appears that he wrote a bunch of 5-star reviews by himself.

I have settled in the Nashville area. In the month of May, I had the intention of purchasing a brand-new vehicle for my soon-to-be-born kid. Francesca gave the impression that everything was quite simple. My credit score improved by 48 points in the first 12 days, but she placed me on a secured credit card, which only improves my score by roughly 24 points per month. They not only helped me get a score higher than 48, but they also placed me in a situation where I wouldn't have to come back any time soon. It's a good thing I came upon them.

I moved to Mt. Juliet. In May, I wanted to buy a new car for my soon-to-be-born son. Francesca made it look so easy. My credit score went up by 48 points in the first 12 days, but she put me on a secured card tip that gets me about 24 points a month. They not only got my score over 48, but they also put me in a position where I wouldn't have to come back. I'm really glad I found them. They really helped me feel better about moving to Nashville.

Dom is a Liar and a Fraud!

McGee also joined the army in 2013. He had a 4-year contract, but was allegedly generally discharged. Dom's version is that he left in order to care for his half-brother. As usual, his story is full of holes and you can read more about it here:

After some time, Dom decided that it was time to say his final goodbye to the military and shift his focus entirely towards producing HipHop music. But life had something else in store for him. After resigning from the US military, Dom decided to opt for higher education and enrolled in an online diploma in "Corporate Finance" in January of 2017. After this diploma, a revolutionary idea popped up in his mind, and it was to create a financial counseling and credit restoration company. Hence, Credit Cadabra was founded in October of 2017.

FOX INTERVIEWER

By Ujwal Sharma April 29, 2022

He also became the Vice President of IVOS Records, which was a significant achievement. Soon after that, Dom was discharged from the US Military in 2016 and decided to focus on his HipHop music career solely. He moved to Atlanta, Georgia, for that purpose.

Because he was the Vice President of IVOS Records, he started gaining traction on social media and gained thousands of followers in a short span of time.

(From Dom's own IVOS site...)

In 2015 Dom Lucre left ML3 and became Vice President of IVOS record label & clothing line, making him the youngest executive and owner of a record label and clothing line in the world at the age of 20. After joining IVOS, Dom gained fame and much success, even working with Icons such as Birdman, Fetty Wap, Big Sean, Kanye West, Rick Ruben, Bruno Mars, Ect. Dom is currently at the age of 22, and is retired out the U.S. Army, IVOS currently has over 180k views on Youtube, 120k streams on Spotify, 200k plays on Soundcloud and currently ranked at # 62 in the country with their artist Hunter 6 Letterz Single "Muchociliente" Dom is pursuing his dream to make 3.7 billion dollars to honor his mother.

As is tradition with pathological liars like Santos and McGee, the lies hardly stop there. Dom's also lied about owning a 150 000 USD watch (it's a cheap copy), buying a house at the age of 22 (he was/is renting it), and having a net worth of 1,2 million USD.

Most of his followers on social media came from running the group, which was also filled with QAnon references like "the storm will come." The group was also used by far-right militias for recruiting members.

Days later, in his chat room, one woman claimed she ran a multistate group interested in far-right militia tactics. She was recruiting members of Win the Win, and Mr. McGee could join if he passed a thorough interview and background check. He could even become the captain of his local chapter.

"We're ready for anything. We have tons of gas masks. Tons of bullets. Tons of magazines. Tons of A.R.s," she said, referring to semiautomatic rifles. "Anybody who's interested, hit me up. Hit me up on Facebook."

Dom has launched an NGO called The Citizen's Crusade, although there is no information of this organization outside of Dom's interviews, so it's probably just another made-up project of his.

Hi Dom, we're thrilled to have a chance to learn your story today. So, before we get into specifics, maybe you can briefly walk us through how you got to where you are today?

I got to where I am by starting in the music business, I was vice president of a record label called IVOS from 2014 to 2018, I was living in Atlanta during my time working with the label. I decided to move to Chattanooga Tennessee to open up my business Credit Cadabra at the end of 2019. I viewed Chattanooga as a great place to start fresh, I worked in Chattanooga from 2020 to 2022. I decided to move to Nashville at the start of 2022, my business had gained a good amount of attention and success so I felt that Nashville was the right place for me. I have enjoyed my time in Tennessee, when I first moved to Nashville I was State Director of Blexit Tennessee which is a non-profit organization that is focused on underserved communities. I encountered countless challenges to reach where I am but those challenges helped develop who I am as well. I now spend most of my time focusing on the success of my new "Credit Where Rent's Due" program that provides free credit repair for homeless Americans. I have always had my heart in community service, before Blexit I was a founding member of the Citizens Crusade. We were a group that went to every homeless camp in Chattanooga where we did the land restoration, and pest control, and provide water, vitamins, and emergency services when needed. My time in Tennessee has been amazing, I was in the army from 2013 to 2017 as well, and during that time I was able to travel to many cities and states, there is no place in the U.S. that has made me as happy as Tennessee, nothing brings me greater joy than becoming apart of the history here and bring change to these deserving people. Although it wasn't easy I would never replace my story because it brought me to Tennessee.

Dom Lucre has over half a million followers on Twitter, and his "exposures" have relatively high engagement. These posts include ridiculous claims like saying that Tom Hanks is a pedophile and it was actually Trump that got Epstein locked up.

  BREAKING - QAnon Adrenochrome conspiracy theory debunked.

Adrenochrome is an oxidation product of adrenaline that is commonly injected into the body through the eye.

It is noted to be highly addictive and to allegedly produce psychotic effects on the brain. It is commonly bought in India as of now.

At the time of writing, a Google Patents search revealed over 4,200 results including "adrenochrome" going back to 1944, albeit since the most recent update in 2023.

Only 3,500 items have been created. Hmm, it seems that adrenochrome patents are being cancelled and erased? 3M has an adrenochrome patent that has expired.

US4501923A "Process for preparing adrenochrome," and a Korean business has a comparable invention that is still active, KR880001026B1 "Process for preparing adrenochrome."

The National Library of Medicine also has an archive on "Adrenochrome"

Russian media organ agrees to pay millions to U.S. conspiracy theorist for Kremlin propaganda

An image of an unidentified anchor as he prepares to go on the air in the Russia Today (RT) TV studio in Moscow on June 8, 2018.

As most grifters often focus on what's trending, Dom has also written about Ukraine. In one of his hot takes, he stated that Putin is "fighting the deep state in Ukraine," and that QAnon is somehow connected to human trafficking in Ukraine.

He also shared a slideshow that was supposed to be proof that Ukraine is infested with Nazis - too bad most of the images were from Russia.

Mistreatment of children in Ukraine is probably a remnant from the Soviet times, read more here:

🔥🇺🇸 BREAKING - QAnon conspiracy debunked. On July 2, 2015, The Huffington post released this article that exposed the human trafficking of children in Ukraine.

They also added the 2014 U.S. State Department's Trafficking in Persons Report (TIP) and it stated that, "Children in orphanages and crisis centers continue to be particularly vulnerable to trafficking within Ukraine."

Inside orphanages, Disability Rights International (DRI) released a report "No Way Home: The Exploitation and Abuse of Children in Ukraine's Orphanages" following a three year investigation of the plight of children living in institutional care.

President Putin has claimed that he ordered the invasion of Ukraine to “denazify” its government, while the same media outlets that verified Nazi existence in Ukraine are calling Putin's claim propaganda. Let your eyes judge for you.

In addition, Dom's tweeted about the "genocide in Donbas". On 14 Jul 2023, one of Prigozhin's "trolls" revealed the "Donbas genocide" victims were actually paid actors. He also forgot to mention that a lot of the civilians died in Donbas came from the down shooting of MH17.

On February 24 2023, western media and politicians spoke about the "anniversary of the conflict in Ukraine". Which, in reality, is not the case. The conflict in Ukraine started in 2014 when Ukraine launched bombs against civilians in the People's Republics of Donetsk and Luhansk.

In Dom's view, the 2014 Revolution of Dignity was a CIA-orchestrated coup. His source for this is a far-left fake news blog, MROnline. He's also suggested that Zelensky is a war criminal and that the US provoked the war with Russia.

You know, all the classics.

Dom is definitely trying to make his way into conservative politics, and in the current state of "post-truth politics" he could actually make it.

That's probably why he's a "black conservative" supporting Trump, as the truth is absolutely irrelevant within the MAGA gang.

A cursory google search shows that this is from someone hacking the stores LED system. The photo shows a person in a dark shirt with the number 9 on the back. The text below the photo reads: "Members entered stores that, through people might want to know, this story was reported on 2022... In the frame of a recent investigation of a 'reputable' Ukrainian media outlet in Kharkiv, it was discovered that a 17-year-old boy was behind the whole thing. It wasn't just part of the mall, but you purposely left out... The success operators of this story is likely to be part of an... organization... How do you find this internet?"
