In today's #vatniksoup, I'll introduce an Italian sociologist, academic and talk show host, Alessandro Orsini (@orsiniufficiale). He's best-known for his pro-Kremlin & anti-NATO/Ukraine comments on the Russo-Ukrainian War on Italy's public broadcasting TV channel, @raitre.

1/18

Orsini hails from the academic world, and he's currently working as the director and founder of the LUISS Observatory on International Security. His work has focused on the sociology of terrorism, an important topic that has absolute nothing to do with the war in Ukraine.

Alessandro Orsini and the war in Ukraine: "He is not an expert and has no qualifications to talk about the conflict"

MAY 5, 2022 - 07:37

by Alessandro D'Amato

The professor's curriculum vitae in X-rays and the opinions of his colleagues: "He has no scientific publications on the subject he engages in on TV"

Speaking of complexity, today Claudio Gatti talks about Alessandro Orsini in La Stampa. The associate professor of general sociology at the Luiss University in Rome, who ended up in controversy first for his contract with the Rai Cartabianca broadcast and then for his grandfather's declarations of happiness during fascism and the invasion of Poland, is truly an expert on war in Ukraine? According to Francesco Ramella, a colleague at the University of Turin, not much: «Behind Orsini's assertiveness, in the CVs that I have been able to view online, I cannot find a single scientific publication on the subject in which he engages on TV. originality or the depth of his scientific knowledge, or because he knows how to create a morbid mechanism of media attention?» observes the sociologist, stigmatizing «the mingling that occurs in some political talks between the role of the expert and that of the opinion maker».

Embarrassed by the Orsini's comments, LUISS University initially issued a statement on Mar 2022, reiterating its "full solidarity with the Ukrainian people" and distance itself from Orsini.

What can Luiss do for Ukraine?

The feeling of helplessness as individuals in the face of the current contrast in Ukraine is overwhelming. In this regard, the University launches a proposal in line with the values of its community.

Luiss is open, connected, and responsible.

Luiss is open because it encourages youth generation to develop a cosmopolitan mindset. It is connected because it is convinced that there are no distant events that cannot concern us. It is responsible because it is aware of the great challenges lying ahead of us.

For these reasons, we invite you to reflect, engage in discussions with peers and beyond, and use your skills and expertise to develop ideas on how to help the Ukrainian people during this emergency.

We await your projects by tomorrow. You can send them via email at thinkukraine@luiss.it. We are certain that your ideas will be a response to what is happening, hence the best antidote to feeling helpless in the face of the images coming from Ukraine.

In response to the emergency situation, we also activated two campaigns aimed at supporting the Ukrainian population.

Here you can find about the Crowdfunding initiative. We invite you to join the campaign that we promote together with our Graduates Association.

In addition, we set up collection points for linen, blankets, sheets, and winter clothes in good conditions for adults and children at the Viale Romania, Viale Polz, and Via Pavesio Campuses. Collection points are open from Monday to Sunday between 8.00am and 7.00pm.

In parallel, Luiss is identifying reception facilities for Ukrainian citizens who are leaving and will leave the country.

Finally, the university's teaching and staff will be invited to contribute one or more hours of their working day to the establishment of a solidarity fund for the Ukrainian population.

Before Russia's full-scale invasion of Ukraine in Feb 2022, Alex was a minor character in the media world - you know, one of those experts that gets called on talk shows whenever his "expertise" is needed on a topic. But after the attack, his controversial, pro-Kremlin...

OUR DEMANDS

- 1 Not One More Penny for War in Ukraine
- 2 Negotiate Peace
- 3 Stop the War Inflation
- 4 Disband NATO
- 5 Global Nuclear De-Escalation
- 6 Slash the Pentagon Budget
- 7 Abolish the CIA and Military-Industrial Deep State
- 8 Abolish War and Empire
- 9 Restore Civil Liberties
- 10 Free Julian Assange

The goal of Orsini's rhetoric is of course to sway the public opinion on Ukraine and the military and humanitarian aid they're receiving. They also heavily criticize NATO. This strategy has been simply copied to every Western country, and Italy is no exception.

In one episode of a show called "Cartabianca", Orsini stated that if Putin were to use nuclear bomb due to the war going badly for Russia, Europe would be "morally co-responsible". He then continued, that in order to avoid nuclear war, we should "let Putin win the war".

Some days later, he declared that "This is a losing war. Either we give Putin what he wants, or he takes it anyway," after which he continued that Russia will continue to advance & that instead of sending weapons, Italy should build "two huge hospitals" for Ukrainian children.8/18 f After Rai's decision to tear up the contract with which Alessandro Orsini was hired by Bianca Berlinguer for six episodes of Cartabianca and a total fee of 12,000 euros, the sociologist who directs the Luiss International Security Observatory is still at the center of controversy for his pro-Russian positions.

(Adnkronos) – "The Russians withdrew from Kherson for strategic reasons". Alessandro Orsini, guest of Cartabianca, does not back down: a week ago the professor of sociology of international terrorism said that in Kherson, a crucial city in the war between Ukraine and Russia, "a bloodbath" was expected. Russia, however, withdrew from Kherson and the city returned to Ukrainian hands.

"A week ago I said that a bloodbath awaits Kherson. I repeat the phrase I said: a bloodbath awaits Kherson, it is possible that Russia will use nuclear weapons against Kherson. We are rushing towards the use of nuclear weapons. Russia has already brought nuclear warheads to its borders with Ukraine. The Russian army didn't

He portrays Russia as the party that's constantly offering an olive branch, suggesting that they're the ones offering peace negotiations. Which is technically true, as Putin and most vatniks started talking about peace after Russia annexed the four Ukrainian oblasts.

L'Ucraina è spacciata. Devo dirvi due cose importanti su Bakhmut, LA7 e Wikipedia

Vorrei ringraziare coloro che mi vogliono bene. Grazie con tutto il cuore del vostro sostegno in questa vergognosa vicenda che coinvolge Wikipedia-Italia. La mia battaglia è in favore della libertà di tutti affinché Wikipedia non operi come un mostro anonimo contro la nostra libertà di espressione pubblicando biografie faziose per intimidire gli studiosi liberi e accrescere il prezzo della loro libertà di critica contro le politiche inumane del blocco occidentale. Del tipo: "Caro Orsini, critichi le politiche inumane del blocco occidentale in Siria e in Ucraina? Bene, noi di Wikipedia-Italia ci impossessiamo della tua biografia e la usiamo come un'arma contro di te". Sto conducendo indagini sugli "amministratori-detrattori" che controllano la mia biografia su Wikipedia e presto vi farò avere nuove informazioni che annuncio, sin da ora, gravi e vergognose.

Quanto a Bakhmut, la televisione italiana è invasa da una quantità spaventosa di propagandisti della Nato, la gran parte su LA7, che sta falsificando tutto. La situazione è la seguente: l'esercito ucraino versa in una condizione tragica. Come avevo previsto, il tempo ha lavorato in favore della Russia. In questi mesi, l'Ucraina si è indebolita spaventosamente mentre la Russia si è rafforzata enormemente, come dimostra anche il fatto che l'economia della Russia, dati del Fondo monetario internazionale, crescerà più di quella della Germania e dell'Inghilterra e, probabilmente, anche più di quella dell'Italia e della Francia, il che vuol dire che, molto probabilmente, l'economia della Russia crescerà più delle economie di quattro Paesi del G7, i più ricchi del mondo. La Russia è sovrastante e l'Ucraina è agonizzante, come dimostra anche la caduta di Bakhmut, la battaglia più importante della guerra. Zelensky è semplicemente spacciato. Se anche ottenesse qualche risultato importante sul campo, non potrebbe mantenerlo per un tempo prolungato, com'è accaduto a Kherson. Se i suoi successi sul campo fossero cospicui, sarà colpito dalle armi nucleari. E' in trappola.

Sapevo tutto questo e ho iniziato ad anticiparlo in Senato, il 4 dicembre 2018. Sapevo che, una volta invasa, l'Ucraina sarebbe finita. Quindi, volendo bene all'Ucraina, mi sono sempre preoccupato di proteggerla suggerendo politiche di pace per allontanare il pericolo dell'invasione russa. Che io abbia operato in favore dell'Ucraina è documentato da una quantità impressionante di miei discorsi ai vertici della Repubblica Italiana, ai generali della Nato, e di articoli stampati. Sono un vero amico dell'Ucraina. Ho sempre cercato di proteggere il popolo ucraino. Gli attuali "amici italiani" dell'Ucraina sono i suoi carnefici: un gruppo di ipocriti che se ne fregava dell'Ucraina quando lo usavo i miei studi per difenderla. Siccome voglio bene al popolo ucraino, vi dico: l'Ucraina è a pezzi e non è ancora niente. Siamo soltanto all'inizio della sua distruzione.

Gli amministratori-detrattori di Wikipedia-Italia mi faranno pagare anche questo post, ma io ho iniziato a combatterli, sono tenace e, alla fine, avrà giustizia anche su di loro. Sin da ragazzino, ho sempre avuto un senso della giustizia grandissimo, immenso, divorante. Ho sempre odiato i prepotenti. Wikipedia Italia avrà la sua parte.

Avanzi l'Italia, avanzi la pace.

P. S. Fate presto a iscrivermi al mio canale youtube. Presto non sarò più libero di scrivere su questa pagina.

Ukraine is screwed. I have to tell you two important things about Bakhmut, LA7 and Wikipedia

I would like to thank those who love me. Thank you with all my heart for your support in this shameful incident involving Wikipedia-Italy. My battle is in favor of everyone's freedom so that Wikipedia does not operate like an anonymous monster against our free speech by publishing false biographies to intimidate free scholars and raise the price of their freedom of criticism against the inhumane policies of the Western Bloc. Like: "Dear Orsini, do you criticize the inhumane policies of the western bloc in Syria and Ukraine? Well, we at Wikipedia-Italy take over your biography and use it as a weapon against you". I'm investigating the "administrators-detractors" who check my bio on Wikipedia and soon I'll give you new information that I announce, as of now, is serious and shameful.

As for Bakhmut, Italian television is invaded by a scary amount of Nato propagandists, mostly on LA7, who is falsifying everything. The situation is as follows: the Ukrainian army is in a tragic situation. As predicted, the weather worked in Russia favor. In recent months, Ukraine has weakened awfully while Russia has strengthened tremendously, as evidenced by the fact that the economy of TAG, data from the IMF, will grow more than that of Germany and England, and probably even more than that of Italy and France, which this means that, most likely, the economy of Russia will grow more than the economies of the four G7 countries, the richest in the world, Russia is overwhelming and Ukraine is agonizing, as evidenced by the fall of Bakhmut, the most important battle of the war. Zelensky is just plain nuts. Even if he got any important results on the field, he couldn't keep him for an extended period, as happened to Kherson. If his success in the field were suspicious, he will be hit by nuclear weapons. He is in a trap.

I knew all of this and started anticipating it in the Senate on December 4, 2018. I knew that, once they invaded, Ukraine would be finished. So, loving Ukraine, I have always been worried about protecting Ukraine by suggesting peace policies to ward off the danger of Russian invasion. The fact that I have operated in favor of Ukraine is documented by an impressive amount of my speeches at the summits of the Italian Republic, to the generals of Nato, and printed articles. I'm a true friend of Ukraine. I have always tried to protect the Ukrainian people. The current "Italian friends" of Ukraine are its criminals: a bunch of hypocrites who cared about Ukraine when I used my studies to defend it. Because I love the Ukrainian people, I'm telling you: Ukraine is broken and still nothing. We're only at the beginning of its destruction.

The administrators-detractors of Wikipedia-Italy will make me pay for this post too, but I started fighting them, they are persistent and in the end I will have justice against them too. Since I was a child, I have always had a great, immense, devouring sense of justice. I have always hated an arrogant Wikipedia Italy will do its part.

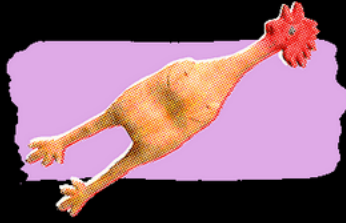

Forward Italy, forward peace.

P. S. Hurry up and subscribe to my youtube channel. Soon I will no longer be free to write on this page.

Russians mistreated Kherson youngsters in 'children's cell,' says Ukraine official

Reuters

December 15, 2022 1:31 AM GMT+2 · Updated 8 months ago

Dec 14 (Reuters) - Ukrainian investigators in an area recaptured from Russian troops have uncovered a cell where children were detained and mistreated, a senior Ukrainian human rights advocate said on Wednesday.

Dmytro Lubinets, the Ukrainian parliament's commissioner for human rights, said the cell was in one of four torture centres operated by Russian troops in Kherson - a city in southern Ukraine abandoned by pro-Moscow forces last month.

Russia denies targeting civilians in the war and rejects allegations it has mistreated civilians.

Lubinets, who has presented a series of reports on alleged torture, said conditions were worse than sites of confinement investigated in other recaptured areas.

"We found 10 torture chambers in Kherson region, four in the city of Kherson," he told journalists at a briefing. "In one of the torture chambers we found a separate room, a cell where children were kept ... even the occupiers called it that, a children's cell."

The cell differed from adjacent rooms only in that occupying forces placed thin mats on the floor, he said.

"We have documented that the children were not provided with water, were given water every other day. They were practically not given food," Lubinets said.

"They used psychological pressure. They told them their parents had abandoned them and would not return."

One 14-year-old boy was detained, he said, for taking pictures of damaged Russian military equipment.

"These were children who, in the eyes of the invaders, were resisting," Lubinets said.

Lubinets did not provide evidence of his assertions. Reuters was unable to immediately confirm the veracity of his account.

Finally, let's pay out a scenario: a man comes to your house, kills your wife and daughter, claims that he now owns your living room and kitchen, and suggests that you should "negotiate" over all this.

How would you respond?
