

Pekka Kallioniemi @P_Kallioniemi

Sep 18, 2024 · 24 tweets · P\_Kallioniemi/status/1836374123729039816

In today's #vatniksoup, I'll introduce an American politician, Jill Stein (@DrJillStein). She's best-known for her visits to Moscow, bids for the US presidency, blaming of NATO for the war in Ukraine, and for her inability to condemn Vladimir Putin as a war criminal.

1/23

Stein's background is in medicine, and she graduated from Harvard Medical School in 1979. During the 90s Stein turned to activism and subsequently received various environmental awards for her work. Stein began her political career by running for governor of Massachusetts...

2/23

...in 2002, but only got 3,5% of the total vote. Her following campaigns were also massive failures, and the only election in which she managed to secure a seat was the local legislative body in Lexington. But that didn't stop Jill, as in 2012 she decided to run for...

Jill Stein - 2008

Summary Of 2008

Jill Stein Report Updates or Corrections	Office: Town Meeting Seat District: Precinct 2 City: Lexington County: Middlesex State: Massachusetts
Related Links:	Election Web Site (report problem) Green Party of Massachusetts
Election Information:	Election date: 3/3/2008 Elected: Yes Number of Seats: 8 Number of Candidates: 13 Incumbent: Yes Partisan: No Length of Term: 3 Write-in: No <hr/> Number of Votes: 194 Percentage: Place: 2nd Certified: No
Media links: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• No links found. Please share any with us.</li> </ul> Suggest a Media Link
All of Jill's Campaigns:	2002 2004 2005 2006 2008 2010 2012
To link directly to this profile, copy this link: http://www.gp.org/elections/candidates/index.php?record=3840

...president with the Green Party. Her campaign consisted of unrealistic promises of “putting 25 million people to work,” and she was endorsed by people like Russia-funded Chris Hedges, CODEPINK founder Medea Benjamin and academic and genocide denier Noam Chomsky.

A Green New Deal for America
GREEN PARTY - PARTIDO VERDE

Jill Stein President
Cheri Honkala Vice President

 SIGN IN or
 CREATE AN ACCOUNT

Staff
Español
Get Stuff
Events
Volunteer
Issues
Endorsements
Media
News
DONATE

VOLUNTEER

ORGANIZE A GROUP

DISTRIBUTE FLYERS

FIND FRIENDS

RECRUIT SUPPORTERS

HOST AN EVENT

Write-In
On the Ballot

BALLOT ACCESS

Home – News –

National peace leaders urge support for Stein

POSTED BY JILL STEIN FOR PRESIDENT 2719.80PC ON JUNE 26, 2012 · FLAG

Seven of the most prominent leaders of the American peace community today released a letter urging financial and other support for Green Party presidential candidate Jill Stein. The letters writers were David Swanson, Medea Benjamin, Leah Bolger, Bruce Gagnon, Chris Hedges, George Martin, and Kevin Zeese. After noting a series of failures of President Barack Obama to curtail military spending and reduce military violence worldwide, their letter states that only Dr. Stein will have the ability to stimulate a serious debate on the nation's approach to foreign policy.

The peace leaders released their support letter as candidate Stein, a physician from Massachusetts who first became nationally known as an environmental health advocate, enters the final days of a push to qualify for federal matching funds. Stein has won 29 state primaries and has been declared the "presumptive nominee" of the Green Party by virtue of having won more than half the delegates to the Green Party convention. In the next few days she must reach fundraising goals in 9 additional states in order to qualify for federal matching funds.

The text of the letter follows below:

Loading

Video Archive

Follow @jillstein2012

PRESENTS

RESTORING AMERICA

American Ideals >
News   Opinion

Opinion

Code Pink's denial of the Uyghur genocide makes it a hate group

By Michael Rubin | February 04, 2023 06:00 AM

t
in
f
✉

Professor Chomsky said he will probably vote for Jill Stein for president in effort to push a genuine electoral alternative, but that if he lived in a swing state he would vote “against Romney-Ryan, which means voting for Obama.”

We also discussed the relationship between tactics and action. Speaking about Occupy Wall Street's public encampments, Professor Chomsky, who supported OWS and authored a book on the subject, said such tactics have a half-life and that when one tactic stops working, activists have a responsibility to try something else.

In 2012, Stein received 0,36% of the total vote, which is why she also decided to run again in 2016. This time she decided on a different strategy - in 2015, she travelled to Moscow to attend the RT 10th anniversary party. While there, she criticized US foreign policy...

...and human rights situation. She was seated together with Vladimir Putin, but somehow failed to remind him that Russian imperialism is bad and Russia should stop annexing and invading sovereign countries. For this, she blamed the language barrier (Putin speaks English).

6/23

In Moscow, Stein calls for foreign policy of principled collaboration

In Moscow, Presidential Candidate Stein Calls For US Foreign Policy of Principled Collaboration Rather than Lawless Domination

(MOSCOW) United States foreign policy in the Middle East is failing badly because it is built upon a futile quest for military and economic domination, according to Green Party presidential candidate Jill Stein.

Speaking as part of a panel of foreign policy experts at a forum organized by the RT news network, Stein said that solutions to problems such as jihadi terrorism would require Russia and the United States to work together, shedding outdated cold war attitudes that prevented collaboration on problems facing both nations.

Unlike Donald Trump, both Hillary Clinton and Jill Stein released their tax returns. Surprisingly, Stein had around 8,5 million USD invested in funds in industries she had harshly criticized, including energy, financial, tobacco, pharmaceutical and defense contractors.

DJIA 41606.18 -0.04% ↓ S&P 500 5634.58 0.03% ↑ Nasdaq 17628.06 0.20% ↑ VIX 17.62 0.06% ↑ U.S. 10 Y

Home > Economy & Politics > Capitol Report

CAPITOL REPORT

Green Party's Jill Stein defends Big Oil fund investments after 'smear attack'

Article said Stein is 'heavily invested' in the industries she maligns

By Robert Schroeder

Published: Oct. 28, 2016 at 1:40 p.m. ET

Share

AA Resize

138

Jill Stein says an article about her investments 'failed to show a conflict of interest.'

ILLUSTRATION: GREEN PARTY

POLITICS

Jill Stein's Ideology Says One Thing—Her Investment Portfolio Says Another

| SAY ONE THING, DO ANOTHER |

The holier-than-thou Green Party candidate rails against Big Carbon, big banks, Big Pharma—while she holds substantial investments in them.

Yashar Ali | Updated Apr. 13, 2017 2:37PM EDT / Published Oct. 26, 2016 6:25PM EDT

Stein ultimately received 1% of the national vote in the 2016 election, but she played a significant role in the swing states of Wisconsin, Michigan and Pennsylvania, as Trump's victory margin was smaller than Stein's total votes in these key battleground states.

Trump's victory margin smaller than total Stein votes in key swing states

BY BROOKE SEIPEL - 12/01/16 3:43 PM ET

Moriah Ratner

In two key states that President-elect Donald Trump won, his margin of victory was smaller than the total number of votes for Green Party nominee Jill Stein.

{mosads}In Michigan, Trump defeated Democrat Hillary Clinton by 10,704 votes, while Stein got 51,463 votes, according to current totals on the state's official website.

Most Popular

- 1 Hillary Clinton: I'm 'conflicted' by Melania Trump
- 2 Negotiate with Moscow to end the Ukraine war and prevent nuclear...
- 3 5 takeaways from Trump's town hall with Sarah Huckabee...
- 4 Democrats block Cruz attempt to pass GOP IVF bill
- 5 Trump-Taylor Swift feud may pose risks in tight election
- 6 Trump quips he wishes Biden hadn't called him: 'He was so nice to me'

Load more

michigan

projected winner

key race 16 electoral votes

trump

candidate	%	votes
trump	47.6%	2,279,543
clinton	47.4%	2,268,839
johnson	3.6%	172,136
stein	1.1%	51,463

est. 100% in

updated 2:03 pm ET, Feb. 16

full details

pennsylvania projected winner

key race 20 electoral votes trump ✓

candidate	%	votes
trump	48.6%	2,970,733
clinton	47.9%	2,926,441
johnson	2.4%	146,715
stein	0.8%	49,941

est. 100% in
updated 2:03 pm ET, Feb. 16

full details

wisconsin projected winner

key race 10 electoral votes trump ✓

candidate	%	votes
trump	47.8%	1,405,284
clinton	47.0%	1,382,536
johnson	3.6%	106,674
stein	1.1%	31,072

est. 100% in
updated 2:04 pm ET, Feb. 16

full details

Following Trump's victory, Stein spearheaded an effort to recount votes in three swing states. The recount was a lost cause, but Stein managed to fundraise 7,3 million USD for it. In May 2018, only 1 million of the money was spent and the rest is allegedly stashed somewhere.

9/23

ELECTIONS ↻

What Happened to Jill Stein's Recount Millions?

| SHOW ME THE MONEY |

The Green Party candidate last filed a form with the FEC since September 2017. And it looks likely that there won't be a vote on how to use the unspent recount funds.

Charles Davis | Updated Jun. 19, 2018 5:41PM EDT / Published May 30, 2018 4:44AM EDT

EXCLUSIVE

Photo Illustration by The Daily Beast

Naturally, the Republicans and the Russians knew that a third-party candidate could help Trump grab the presidency. Trump-operative Roger Stone had previously used third-party candidates to grab votes from the Democrats, and according to a 2018 report, the Russians...

MEMO Published June 10, 2024 · 6 minute read

The Data: How Third Parties Could be Spoilers that Elect Trump

RED ALERT: THE THIRD-PARTY THREAT IN 2024

VIEW SERIES

...had launched a pro-Stein online campaign promoting Stein and her policies. For example, the employees of Yevgeny Prigozhin-led troll factory Internet Research Agency tweeted the phrase “Jill Stein” over 1000 times during the elections.

RUSSIA INVESTIGATION

Russians launched pro-Jill Stein social media blitz to help Trump win election, reports say

Building support for Stein was one of a "roster of themes" the Moscow-sanctioned internet trolls "turned to repeatedly," report says.

Green Party presidential candidate Jill Stein speaks at a campaign rally in Chicago on Sept. 8. JIM YOUNG / Reuters

Dec. 22, 2018, 2:00 PM GMT+2

By Robert Windrem

Two days before the 2016 presidential election, an Instagram account called @woke_blacks posted a message in support of long-shot Green Party candidate Jill Stein.

"The excuse that a lost Black vote for Hillary is a Trump win is bs," it read. "It could be late, but y'all might want to support Jill Stein instead."

According to a report commissioned by the Senate, the account was a fake, part of the Russian campaign to sway the 2016 presidential election in favor of Donald Trump.

An NBC News analysis found that Russians working under the direction of the Internet Research Agency, the St. Petersburg-based firm run by a close ally of Russian President Vladimir Putin, tweeted the phrase “Jill Stein” over 1,000 times around the time of the election.

The posts were often accompanied by variations of the same hashtag, “Grow a spine and vote Jill Stein.”

During the 2020 elections Jill was hibernating, but she’s back in the race for the 2024 presidential elections. According to Stein, her main priorities are being “anti-war”, supporting universal healthcare and “pledging to stop genocide” in Palestine.

12/23

Jill Stein

This article is more than 9 months old

Jill Stein formally launches 2024 White House bid as Green party candidate

Stein is latest in a series of mostly leftist figures to announce candidacies with the potential to erode Biden’s core support

Robert Tait
Wed 22 Nov 2023 02:47 CET

Share

📷 Jill Stein launches her third presidential bid. Photograph: Matt Rourke/AP

A new front opened in the growing threats to Joe Biden’s presidency on Tuesday when the leftwing environmentalist Jill Stein formally launched her third presidential bid in an online conversation with two fellow progressive activists.

PLEDGE TO STOP GENOCIDE

ABANDON PRO-GENOCIDE CANDIDATES! SUPPORT ANTI-GENOCIDE CANDIDATES!

We the undersigned demand the US government stop supporting the ongoing Israeli genocide of Palestinians in Gaza. We therefore pledge to withhold all support from candidates supporting the genocidal war on Gaza. We will instead support only candidates who:

- Support peace, freedom, dignity, equality, and security for all people in Palestine and Israel;
- Don't take money from AIPAC and the PACs and lobbyists for war profiteers;
- Who specifically support:
  - An immediate ceasefire
  - Ending the blockade and allowing food, water, medicine, energy, and emergency shelter to enter Gaza
  - Return of all hostages and political prisoners
  - An end to Israeli occupation and apartheid
  - Compliance by all parties in the conflict with international law, including an end to all violence against civilians
  - Accountability for war crimes

On 16 Sep 2024, Mehdi Hasan interviewed Stein over her policies and presidential bid. In one of the most absurd conversations ever, Hasan asked Stein whether Putin was a war criminal, but she failed to condemn him as one (like she did in case of Biden and Netanyahu).

13/23

In addition, Jill's promoting the main Russian narratives about the war in Ukraine. She's repeating the lie about NATO agreeing to "not move one inch to the east," spread the lie about the US formeting a "coup" where "ultra-nationalists and ex-Nazis came to power".

14/23

Expanding NATO threatens Russia and breaks our promise

OnTheIssues: What should the U.S. do about Russia?

Stein: I think this is an issue where something does need to be said--but it's important to understand where they are coming from. The United States, under Bush 1, had an agreement when Germany joined NATO--Russia agreed with the understanding that NATO would not move one inch to the east. Since then NATO has pursued a policy of basically encircling Russia--including the threat of nukes and drones and so on.

Work towards neutral Ukraine; don't arm them against Russia

OnTheIssues: Should we help Ukraine against Russia?

Stein: We should encourage Ukraine to be neutral--we helped foment a coup against a democratically-elected government, [resulting in a government] where ultra-nationalists and ex-Nazis came to power. Imagine the inverse: if Russia did that in Canada--installed a government hostile to us--we saw something like that in Cuban Missile Crisis--that would not be acceptable to us. So let's not be single-issue--instead of fomenting a hostile Ukraine we should be leading the way in establishing a neutral Ukraine that would allow Russia to not feel under attack. We've made great strides--Putin is not a hero--but as Noam Chomsky points out, the Doomsday clock has moved closer to midnight than it has been since 1983. The hostile faceoff with Russia causes that and is entirely misplaced--led by war hawks in Obama administration--especially [Assistant Secretary of State for European Affairs] Victoria Nuland, who cheered on an overthrow in Ukraine.

When asked about Crimea, Stein stated that “These are highly questionable situations,” and that “Russia used to own Ukraine.” In the same interview, she repeated her lie about a “US-orchestrated coup” in Ukraine. When asked whether Putin was a “incipient despot”,...

15/23

Jeff Stein

How much do you think America is currently to blame for Russian aggression?

Jill Stein

Well, Russian aggression meaning what, exactly? (References Crimea and Ukraine.) These are highly questionable situations. Why are we — Russia used to own Ukraine. Ukraine was historically a part of Russia for quite some period of time, and we all know there was this conversation with Victoria Nuland about planning the coup and who was going to take over.

Not that the other guy was some model of democracy. But the one they put in — with the support of the US and the CIA in this coup in Ukraine — that has not been a solution. Regime change is something we need to be very careful about. And this is a highly inflammatory regime change with a nuclear armed power next door.

So I'm saying: Let's just stop pretending there are good guys here and bad guys here. These are complicated situations. Yeah, Russia is doing lots of human rights abuse, but you know what? So are we.

...she answered: “To some extent, yes, but there could be a whole lot worse,” again blaming NATO and the West for the crisis: “we needlessly provoke him and endanger him and surround him with war games,” neatly forgetting Putin’s invasions starting with Chechnya in 1999.

THRUSH: Give me a sense of how you sort of view Putin's role. Do you think he is an incipient despot?

STEIN: To some extent, yes, but there could be a whole lot worse, you know, and I think when we--you know, when we needlessly provoke him and endanger him and surround him with war games--you know, this is sort of the Cuban Missile Crisis on steroids, what we are doing to Russia right now, and I don't think this is a good idea. Zbigniew Brzezinski, you know, who was one of the--

Stein was also a speaker at the “Rage Against the War Machine” event, where vatniks and tankies gathered around to call for the end of aid to Ukraine, bash the US and NATO and whitewash Russia's war crimes and crimes against humanity in Ukraine.

HOME COALITION SPEAKERS SIGN UP CONTACT HOTEL BLOCKS DONATE

LIBERTARIAN PARTY PEOPLE'S PARTY

RAGE AGAINST THE WAR MACHINE

Anti-War Rally - Washington, D.C.

FEBRUARY 19

JILL STEIN
SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKER

"We gave the marching orders to our elected officials. We wanted out of Vietnam and we got out of Vietnam. The corporate-powered parties are not gonna do it for us. We have to do it for ourselves. And the minute we stand up and stand together, we are unstoppable."

As is tradition, Jill also supports Syria's brutal dictator Bashar al-Assad. In 2016, she deleted a tweet saying that "The US should be working with Syria, Russia, and Iran to restore all of Syria to control by the [Assad] government."

18/23

Green Party candidate deletes old post supporting Assad's regime

BY HARPER NEIDIG 10/06/16 02:24 PM ET

Some (including me!) consider her to be a “spoiler candidate” - a candidate who knows they have no chance of winning, but who can still affect the vote in battleground states and help the other candidate win. I mean, she did the same thing during the 2016 elections.

19/23

UnHerd

Home Mission Newsroom Our Writers W

Could Jill Stein be a spoiler for Democrats again?

BY FRED BAUER

Newsroom SEPTEMBER 17, 2024 - 8:30PM

Old grudges die hard, and Democrats still blame the Green Party for two elections in which Democrats won the popular vote but lost the presidency: 2000 and 2016. In both cases, the vote total for the Green Party was more than the Republican margin in the states that determined the presidential election in the Electoral College. Ralph Nader got almost 100,000 votes in Florida during the 2000 election — far more than George W. Bush's 537-vote lead in the Sunshine State. In 2016, Jill Stein also got more votes than Donald Trump's victory margin in the trifecta of Michigan, Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin that ended up delivering him the presidency.

DEMOCRATS ELECTION GREEN PARTY JILL STEIN JOE BIDEN KAMALA HARRIS POLITICS ROW US

f x e

Projected third-party vote share, based on polling averages in the battlegrounds, accounts for the full 2020 margin of victory in four crucial battleground states.

	Polling Avg: Third Party Share of Vote	Projected Third Party Vote Share in 2024	Biden 2020 State Margin of Victory
ARIZONA	0.2%	6,775	10,457
GEORGIA	1.7%	84,999	11,779
MICHIGAN	7.6%	420,987	154,188
NEVADA	0.8%	11,243	33,596
NORTH CAROLINA	4.8%	265,191	-74,483
PENNSYLVANIA	0.6%	41,622	81,660
WISCONSIN	6.5%	214,373	20,682

Source: RealClearPolitics State Polling Averages; Analysis of 2020 FEC Results

In 2016, the Stein campaign - with the help of the Russians - targeted heavily the African-American population. This time they seem to be focusing on the Muslim vote in the swing states, and a recent CAIR survey indicates that this strategy has been fairly successful.

20/23

TÜRKİYE WORLD ECONOMY POLITICS ENERGY SPORTS INFOGRAPHICS OPINION VIDEO PHOTO
🔍

AMERICAS

Muslim voters in swing states favor Green Party's Jill Stein, CAIR survey finds

Muslim voters react to Democratic and Republican candidates' Gaza policies in key states where Green Party candidate Dr. Jill Stein is leading

Islam Dogru and Hakan Copur | 16.09.2024 - Update : 17.09.2024

World

Morning Brief
18, 2024

Instagram to automatically teens in built protections

Georgian par
adopts bill c

Dr. Jill Stein 🌻 🗳️ @DrJillStein · 3h

The establishment isn't worried that we haven't built enough power. They're looking at @CAIRNational polls like these and are terrified that in spite of the obstacles they've thrown our way, this election is paving a path for Greens to become a serious force in US politics. 🙌

Team Stein/Ware 2024 🗳️ @Te... · 3h

Have you seen the latest @CAIRNational poll? We leading with Muslim American voters by at least 5 points in Arizona, Michigan, and Wisconsin!!!

...

MUSLIM VOTERS IN SWING STATES ARE COMMITTING TO JILL STEIN FOR PRESIDENT

Candidates supported by muslims in poll ↴

Kamala Harris: %29.4

Dr. Jill Stein: %29.1

Donald Trump: %11.2

New survey suggests Muslim voters in key swing states are leaning toward Green Party candidate Dr. Stein in the upcoming US presidential election v.aa.com.tr/3331771

Candidates supported by muslims in the poll

While Stein is considered to be a general laughing stock over here on X, her supporters and promoters are running a relatively successful campaign on platforms with younger audiences, like TikTok, where she targets mostly Democrat voters.

TikTok
@drjillstein

“Well if you aren’t voting for Biden or Trump,
who are you voting for?”

▶ 0:00

Jill Stein has absolutely no path to win the presidency, but just like she did in 2016, she can help Donald Trump to win. Trump has relatively low support among the US Muslim community, which is why using Stein to get those votes is a brilliant and cunning strategy.

Minneapolis Pragmatist 🌴🌴
@MN_Pragmatist

Jill Stein out here liking posts telling people to vote for Trump

I'm not a big account but PLEASE spread this

Comments

mikelhaight 17h · ❤️ by author

The Dems need to be stopped. Either vote for Trump or if you just can't then vote Green. Either way this nonsense needs to stop.

8

Reply

The New Republic's Peter Rothpletz has claimed that "Jill Stein is killing the Green Party", and that they should "ditch the malignant narcissist" responsible for its decline. And when you look at her "achievements" throughout the years, it's hard to disagree.

23/23

Politics

Election 2024 Congress Supreme Court Watch Media

Peter Rothpletz / September 17, 2024

DEAD WEIGHT

Jill Stein Is Killing the Green Party

With membership at new lows and no electoral wins to their name, it's time for the Greens to ditch the malignant narcissist who's presided over its decline.

Green Party presidential nominee Jill Stein speaks during the People's 1st Convention at Casablanca in Milwaukee.

JOEL ANGEL JUAREZ/GETTY IMAGES

How has Stein fared as a leader? By AOC's perfectly reasonable standard, she's done abysmally. As of July 2024, a mere 143 officeholders in the United States are affiliated with the Green Party. None of them are in statewide or federal offices. In fact, no Green Party candidate has ever won federal office. And Stein's reign has been a period of indisputable decline, during which time the party's membership—which peaked in 2004 at 319,000 registered members—has fallen to 234,000 today.

My book titled "Vatnik Soup - The Ultimate Guide to Russian Disinformation" has been published, you can order it here:

Or if you prefer Amazon:

<https://www.amazon.com/Vatnik-Soup-Ultimate-Russian-Disinformation/dp/8792750400>

...