In today's #vatnik soup I'll introduce an American troll and opportunist, Jackson Hinkle (@jacksonhinkle). Hinkle is best-known for his pro-Russian and pro-Putin views, for his feeble attempts at getting attention and for his monetization of the Russo-Ukrainian War.

In 2019 he ran for the San Clemente City Council, but wasn't elected. His main campaign points were to stop the building of a toll road, and legalizing drugs and prostitution. After this election, Hinkle must've thought "This cute boy approach isn't working, I'll just go..."

...full edgelord asshole - it worked for Trump, why not for me?" Or maybe he had a chat with Tulsi Gabbard, who had a quite similar transformation around that time, and who left the Democratic Party to fight the "elitist cabal of warmongers". Or maybe he noticed...

Last Friday was Congresswoman & Presidential Candidate Tulsi Gabbard's birthday. Naturally, we gathered a group of local surfers, stakeholders, and national nuclear waste organizers and went surfing in front of the San Onofre Nuclear Generating Station.

Rep. Gabbard reached out to my friend & fellow organizer, Sarah Brady, about shining a light on the issue of nuclear waste storage at San Onofre. The plant shut down in 2012 after a leak, and now stores large quantities of highly radioactive waste 100ft from the ocean, and just a few feet above groundwater. This waste is currently in the most vulnerable position possible, and should be locally relocated to higher ground (the Mesa) for temporary storage in an atmospherically controlled building until there is a national solution for nuclear waste.

Amongst our group at San Onofre, was my friend Leona Morgan. Leona is an indigenous, environmental justice community organizer, who lives in New Mexico, which is targeted to store more than double the waste in existence "temporarily" for up to 120 years. It is important to ensure that we don't dump our problems on a community that didn't reap the benefits of the waste we produced. We must oppose all efforts to establish "Consolidated Interim Storage" sites that would be managed by private companies in New Mexico and Texas, and instead focus on identifying (a) permanent repository(ies). The most well-known proposal for a permanent storage site was Yucca Mountain in Nevada. Unfortunately, the decision to store waste here was based on politics, not science.

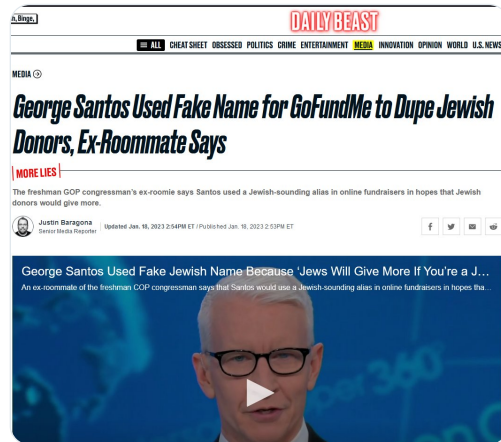

After construction of the site began, it was found that, rather than being dry as a bone, there was a great deal of water inside and under Yucca Mountain — deeming it unfit for a storage site. Furthermore, the surrounding indigenous community strongly opposes the project.

We need to come together as a nation to find real solutions for safe nuclear waste storage. In honor of #EarthDay, Sarah Brady and Taylor Altenbern are launching a petition calling on our elected officials to act on this issue. ...that you don't have to be smart, honest or even have any competence at all to be elected - just look at people like Lauren Boebert, MTG and George Santos. Trump paved the way for this type of representatives a long time ago, and it seems to be working amazingly well.

Anyway, the Jackson we (unfortunately) see today is very different from the 2019 Jackson. Actually, I'd go as far to say that the current Jackson's persona is completely fabricated and he tries to gain both reputation and money from saying outrageous BS.

Regarding Ukraine, it's not even worth going through all the pro-Russian narratives that Hinkle has promoted - they're all there. He's actually trying to monetize with Z gear, a symbol for supporting Russia's invasion in Ukraine...

6/15

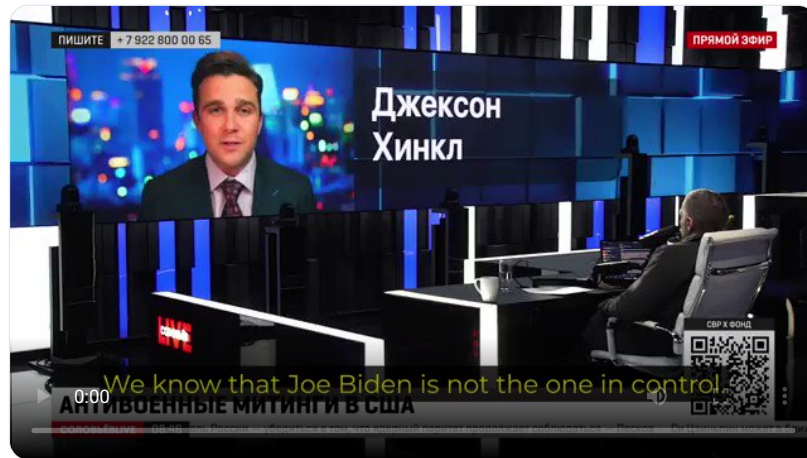

...and posts videos with titles like "Defund Ukraine" and "Ukraine lies" on his Youtube channel. Hinkle is also one of the few Americans who have been guests at Russian propagandist Vladimir Solovyev's show.

7/15

He's also supported the "Stop the Steal" and the "Deep State" conspiracy theories by saying that Biden is controlled by a "Satanic cabal of DC deep state leadership". Not surprisingly, he's been interviewed by Tucker Carlson of FOX News.

8/15

Hinkle's been awarded the Serena Shim Award previously given to such "journalists" as Eva Bartlett & The Grayzone bloggers. The award was given by the Association for Investment in Popular Action Committees who, based on Bellingcat's investigation, supports the al-Assad regime. 9/15

Jackson has also recently reached the age when you get interested in girls - first he dated "Sarah" who allegedly left him for Jonah Hill, and later he tried to get a new girlfriend from OnlyFans, the platform he's been very critical of.

When all other things failed, the Kremlin masterminds came up with a fresh idea: they'll just make Miss Genocide, Anna Linnikova date Hinkle. They spent a week together at the Four Seasons Surfside in Miami. Read more about this dream couple from here:

The speaker line up included Miss Russia's boyfriend, a journalist for Sputnik (a Russian state owned media agency), a former UN weapons inspector turned convicted pedophile, and a current lieutenant...

Jackson also has a tendency to criticize "wokeness", trans people, and obesity. Ironically, he didn't mind LGBT+ flags when he was running for City Council in 2019. One of the funniest Hinkle moments was when he was put in his place by both of his parents on Twitter.

12/15

He is what I call a "Merchant of Rage" - he posts extremely polarizing views on social media, lets the social media algorithms - that heavily prioritize enraging content - spread them far and wide, and then tries to somehow make money out of this process.

By spreading his hateful messages due to outrage, people are actually making him MORE money. There are many Americans doing this, one notable example being Putin's old friend Michael Flynn and his ReAwaken America Tour.

To conclude: Jackson Hinkle is an "edgelord" who will do anything for attention, so everyone stop giving him that attention. There's an easy solution for this: Block him and forget about him.

In today's #vatnik soup I'll be introducing a US representative and a pathological liar, George Santos. It is almost impossible to do a proper profile on this guy, since it's hard to know what aspects of his life are true and what are false.

But let's try!

In today's #vatnik soup I'll introduce a  TV star and a propagandist, Vladimir Solovyov. He has his own TV show called "Evening with Vladimir Solovyov".

Vladimir is first and foremost a Kremlin-mouthpiece and a master propagandist, who speaks mostly to the  people.

In today's #vatnik soup I'll introduce an ex-Army man and conspiracy theorist Michael Flynn. His tenure as the National Security Advisor is the shortest in history, as he had misled VP Pence and lied to the FBI about his dealings with the Russians.
