In today's #vatniksoup, I'll introduce an American social media personality, Dominick "Dom Lucre" McGee (@dom_lucre). He's best-known for lying about absolutely everything, and for spreading QAnon-related conspiracy theories and disinformation on the Russo-Ukrainian War.

1/21

Based on Dom Lucre, Dom Lucre is a massively popular Renaissance Man, who's dabbled successfully in military, hip hop, financial advising, philanthropy, politics and of course "breaking narratives". Hell, he even wrote an (everybody)Wiki about himself!

2/21

In many ways, Dominick is the George Santos for the black community, as almost everything about his past has been either exaggerated or completely made-up. A Twitter user @CoffinItUp (they're great, follow them and check their substack!) has made a lot of research on Dom...

The unauthorized (yet undisputed) "serial" biography of Dominick Andrew McGee, serial pathological liar and grifter. Given where we are at with Elmo's efforts (or incompetence) to silence anyone other than those promoting hate, I'd appreciate a retweet and a follow if you are able.
Below this is a list of nine parts, each with a green checkmark icon:
Part I - Intro/Fake Education ✓
Part II - Counterfeit Patek ✓
Part III - Fake House ✓
Part IV - GI Dom ✓
Part V - Credit Scamdabra ✓
Part VI - Dommy and Stabby (a love story...) ✓
Part VII - Philanthropy ✓
Part VIII - Hip Hop Success ✓
Part IX - Bill takes a vacation!!! ✓
The Twitter handle @coffinitup is written vertically on the right side of the graphic.

...and I'll be referencing to his investigative work quite often. First of all, Dom claims to have graduated from college in 2017 from Penn State, but they couldn't verify any diplomas or degrees. Dom then back-pedaled and said he's missing his "internship".

Dom Lucre | Breaker of Narratives
@dom_lucre

All that cap to try to discredit me? You soy boys are so miserable. You keep keep me entertained daily, Penn State, I addressed that in about 8 spaces. I have to finish an Internship I have every credit and more. Wtf I look like doing an internship? It's getting waived. I never had a non profit, everything I do for anyone is out my pocket. I know that's hard for losers like you to comprehend because you only think of what people can do for you. Credit Cadabra's success can be verified by looking up it's visitor history via an SEO history tracker. Do you know how I'm living? It's amazing 🤯 listen long story short. I'm here for a LONG time not a GOOD one. I'll see you tomorrow ❤️👊

FOCUS AGAIN! YOU CLAIM TO HAVE INVESTED IN A $150,000+ WATCH (AND THEN YOU CLAIMED YOU "LEGIT TESTED IT"). YOU OWN A $500 COUNTERFEIT WATCH. YOU ARE A PATHOLOGICAL LIAR.

He's actually been enrolled to Penn State since 2017, but hasn't graduated after 6½ years. They even kicked him out once. Dom's also claimed to have obtained a certificate from Wharton University, but there's absolutely no proof of any of this:

Mr McGee has also his own business, Credit Cadabra. The site's been referred to as the "Most Searched and Serviced Financial Advising Company", which doesn't really mean anything at all. Anyway, it appears that he wrote a bunch of 5-star reviews by himself.

Business Outlook

Pros

Nothing really. And in light of the cons, just a terrible experience (once Dom had given up trying to get in my panties).

Cons

Micro-managed, from day one. Dom clearly didn't trust any of his staff, making them present their daily work plan at 8am, and 'reviewing' after hours. Constantly making hurtful comments and getting way too touchy for a boss. I had to ask him to stop staring at me a number of times, and although he eventually got the message, it didn't stop him from exhibiting the very same behaviour towards the other women in the team. The work was dull, repetitive and often done on such a shoddy manner that clients/customers would complain, yet Dom laughed it off, claiming that it's just teething troubles. Very demotivating.

Advice to Management

Sack Dom, get a competent leader.

McGee also joined the army in 2013. He had a 4-year contract, but was allegedly generally discharged. Dom's version is that he left in order to care for his half-brother. As usual, his story is full of holes and you can read more about it here:

Dom Lucre | Breaker of Narratives @dom_lucre · May 21

I was honorably discharged from the Army one year early to help my brother who unexpectedly reached paralysis. He was sent to a nursing home while I was serving, they had him sleeping in his own feces.

Once I was released I spent everyday trying to save him, unfortunately I did... Show more

THE AMERICAN REPORTER

After some time, Dom decided that it was time to say his final goodbye to the military and shift his focus entirely towards producing HipHop music. But life had something else in store for him. After resigning from the US military, Dom decided to opt for higher education and enrolled in an online diploma in "Corporate Finance" in January of 2017. After this diploma, a revolutionary idea popped up in his mind, and it was to create a financial counseling and credit restoration company. Hence, Credit Cadabra was founded in October of 2017.

FOX INTERVIEWER

By Ujjwal Sharma April 29, 2022

He also became the Vice President of IVOS Records, which was a significant achievement. Soon after that, Dom was discharged from the US Military in 2016 and decided to focus on his HipHop music career solely. He moved to Atlanta, Georgia, for that purpose. Because he was the Vice President of IVOS Records, he started gaining traction on social media and gained thousands of followers in a short span of time.

(From Dom's own IVOS site...)

In 2015 Dom Lucre left ML3 and became Vice President of IVOS record label & clothing line, making him the youngest executive and owner of a record label and clothing line in the world at the age of 20. After joining IVOS, Dom gained fame and much success, even working with icons such as Birdman, Fetty Wap, Big Sean, Kanye West, Rick Ruben, Bruno Mars, Ect. Dom is currently at the age of 22, and is retired out the U.S. Army. IVOS currently has over 180k views on Youtube, 120k streams on Spotify, 200k plays on Soundcloud and currently ranked at # 62 in the country with their artist Hunter 6 Letterz Single "Muchociliente" Dom is pursuing his dream to make 3.7 billion dollars to honor his mother.

As is tradition with pathological liars like Santos and McGee, the lies hardly stop there. Dom's also lied about owning a 150 000 USD watch (it's a cheap copy), buying a house at the age of 22 (he was/is renting it), and having a net worth of 1,2 million USD.

Dominick has built his brand around being a black conservative who supports Donald Trump. He was also involved in the "Stop the Steal" movement, and even orchestrated his own FB group around the event called "Win the Win".

He is most known for his coverage of the 2020 United States Presidential Election. In November Dom was disaffiliated with the results of the election, this is when he decided to use his social media presence to express his distaste for the election results. Dom had 89 thousand Instagram followers when he began posting about his support for Donald Trump. His Instagram currently sits at 65 thousand followers. Dom stated this is because the majority of the music business embraces liberal influencers but offers the opposite for conservatives. Dom began gaining thousands of followers on his Facebook group Win The Win which he created on December 3, 2020. His Facebook group quickly became Facebook's most active conservative group. Dom was featured in The New York Times for his Facebook group. His group was banned shortly after his New York Times Appearance. Prior to Dom's group being banned he created a Zello channel to communicate with his followers. The New York Times journalist that wrote the article on Dom's Facebook group Stuart A. Thompson also joined his Zello channel to monitor his coverage. Stuart reported his time with Dom's Zello channel on CNN during the month of February in 2021. The CNN article covering Dom's Win The Win Rally Zello Channel.

Most of his followers on social media came from running the group, which was also filled with QAnon references like "the storm will come." The group was also used by far-right militias for recruiting members.

Days later, in his chat room, one woman claimed she ran a multistate group interested in far-right militia tactics. She was recruiting members of Win the Win, and Mr. McGee could join if he passed a thorough interview and background check. He could even become the captain of his local chapter.

"We're ready for anything. We have tons of gas masks. Tons of bullets. Tons of magazines. Tons of A.R.s," she said, referring to semiautomatic rifles. "Anybody who's interested, hit me up. Hit me up on Facebook."

Dom has launched an NGO called The Citizen's Crusade, although there is no information of this organization outside of Dom's interviews, so it's probably just another made-up project of his.

Hi Dom, we're thrilled to have a chance to learn your story today. So, before we get into specifics, maybe you can briefly walk us through how you got to where you are today?

I got to where I am by starting in the music business, I was vice president of a record label called IVOS from 2014 to 2018, I was living in Atlanta during my time working with the label. I decided to move to Chattanooga Tennessee to open up my business Credit Cadabra at the end of 2019. I viewed Chattanooga as a great place to start fresh, I worked in Chattanooga from 2020 to 2022. I decided to move to Nashville at the start of 2022, my business had gained a good amount of attention and success so I felt that Nashville was the right place for me. I have enjoyed my time in Tennessee, when I first moved to Nashville I was State Director of Blexit Tennessee which is a non-profit organization that is focused on underserved communities. I encountered countless challenges to reach where I am but those challenges helped develop who I am as well. I now spend most of my time focusing on the success of my new "Credit Where Rent's Due" program that provides free credit repair for homeless Americans. I have always had my heart in community service, before Blexit I was a founding member of the Citizens Crusade. We were a group that went to every homeless camp in Chattanooga where we did the land restoration, and pest control, and provide water, vitamins, and emergency services when needed. My time in Tennessee has been amazing, I was in the army from 2013 to 2017 as well, and during that time I was able to travel to many cities and states, there is no place in the U.S. that has made me as happy as Tennessee, nothing brings me greater joy than becoming apart of the history here and bring change to these deserving people. Although it wasn't easy I would never replace my story because it brought me to Tennessee.

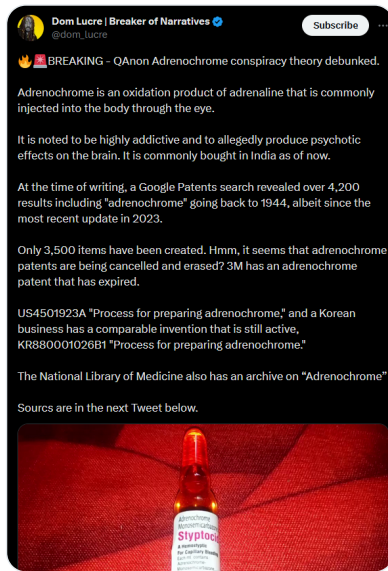

Dom Lucre has over half a million followers on Twitter, and his "exposures" have relatively high engagement. These posts include ridiculous claims like saying that Tom Hanks is a pedophile and it was actually Trump that got Epstein locked up.

He's also promoted the Pizza Gate conspiracy theory, which claims that high-profile Hollywood stars and politicians are involved in a child sex trafficking ring. As an "evidence", he posted a segment from Ben Swann's "Reality Check" TV show from Fox. Swann has promoted...

13/21

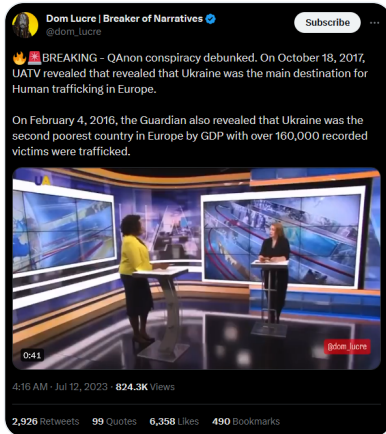

...every conspiracy theory out there, and has made almost 7 million USD by the Russian government for his propaganda work for the South America, Indian and Chinese markets.

14/21

As most grifters often focus on what's trending, Dom has also written about Ukraine. In one of his hot takes, he stated that Putin is "fighting the deep state in Ukraine," and that QAnon is somehow connected to human trafficking in Ukraine.

15/21

He also shared a slideshow that was supposed to be proof that Ukraine is infested with Nazis - too bad most of the images were from Russia.

Mistreatment of children in Ukraine is probably a remnant from the Soviet times, read more here:

BREAKING - QAnon conspiracy debunked. On July 2, 2015, The Huffington post released this article that exposed the human trafficking of children in Ukraine.

They also added the 2014 U.S. State Department's Trafficking in Persons Report (TIP) and it stated that, "Children in orphanages and crisis centers continue to be particularly vulnerable to trafficking within Ukraine."

Inside orphanages, Disability Rights International (DRI) released a report "No Way Home: The Exploitation and Abuse of Children in Ukraine's Orphanages" following a three year investigation of the plight of children living in institutional care.

DRI found rampant sexual violence, abuse, and rape were commonplace. Children are often recruited directly

On February 7, 2023, OAN researched the claims of biolabs named Metabiota in Ukraine and the possibility that they were a reason that Russia decided to attack Ukraine. OAN was able to verify & link Joe and Hunter Biden to these claims.

In addition, Dom's tweeted about the "genocide in Donbas". On 14 Jul 2023, one of Prigozhin's "trolls" revealed the "Donbas genocide" victims were actually paid actors. He also forgot to mention that a lot of the civilians died in Donbas came from the down shooting of MH17.

In Dom's view, the 2014 Revolution of Dignity was a CIA-orchestrated coup. His source for this is a far-left fake news blog, MROnline. He's also suggested that Zelensky is a war criminal and that the US provoked the war with Russia.

You know, all the classics.

dom is definitely trying to make his way into conservative politics, and in the current state of "post-truth politics" he could actually make it.

That's probably why he's a "black conservative" supporting Trump, as the truth is absolutely irrelevant within the MAGA gang.

To conclude: Dominick McGee is an opportunist, attention-seeking grifter who's trying to make money by spreading disinformation and conspiracy theories. He follows every "current thing" in order to garner to his "fans", while trying to make a quick buck.
