In today's #vatniksoup, I'll introduce an international pro-Kremlin network called DD Geopolitics (DDG; @DD_Geopolitics). They're best-known for spreading Russian propaganda and disinformation, and for collecting and donating money to Russian outlets like Rybar and Killnet.

1/22

When discussing about Donbass Devushka/DD Geopolitics, the focus has been solely on its founder and owner, Sarah Bils. But as she has stated, it's actually a bigger group of people from around the world, and today's soup will introduce some of them.

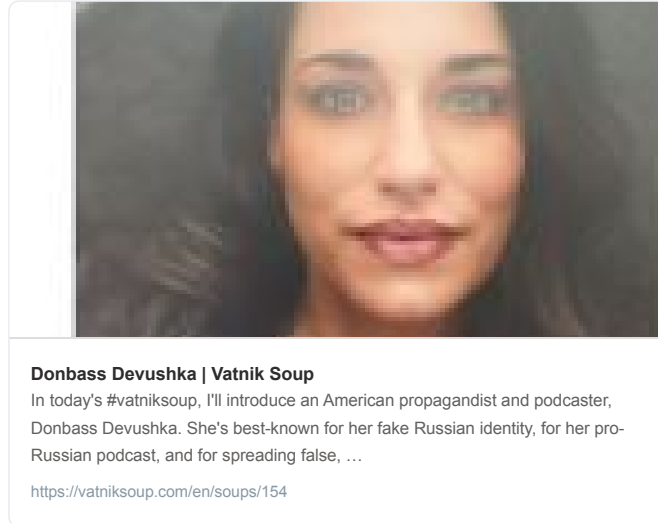

2/22

In case you need to catch up on Donbass Devushka/DDG, read this article:

DDG is basically just a re-hash of the Donbass Devushka brand with some admin changes (for example, @squatsons is no longer part of the group).

3/22

This research spans over 8 months of work by The Unintelligence Agency using open data sources. All people introduced in these soups had administrator privileges on the DDG Telegram channel.

As of today, DDG has over 120 000 followers on X/Twitter, and even with artificial inflation it's one of the largest English-speaking, pro-Kremlin social media networks online. Recently, the account was shadowbanned, probably due to the inorganic growth via troll farms.

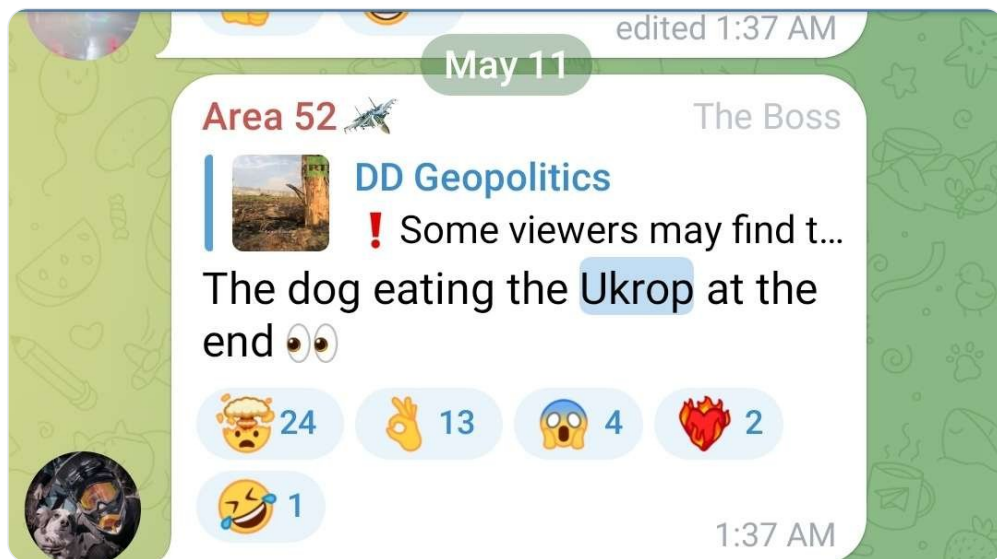

5/22

The group's Telegram chat is extremely intolerant and pro-Russian, and the discussions range from fantasizing about killing Ukrainians and criticizing the "woke culture" to calling for genocide in Ukraine.

Pretty much the only topic that's shunned is supporting Ukraine.

At least in the past, the group has strongly supported the notorious PMC Wagner. Back in Spring 2023, the channel's logo featured the Wagner logo and sledgehammer, and DDG members have often discussed about how to actually join the group.

I'm already learning Russian. I plan on volunteering for the army once I get to Russia. I also already have a few cousins in Donetsk and Luhansk units so we'll see. One of my cousins joined Wagner back in 2020 and he's still contracting with them, I don't know how I feel about it but I am proud of him. Whichever ancestor chose to make our motto "Until God Returns, We Fight" made a self-fulfilling prophecy.

The group has promoted donations to West-sanctioned DPR & LPR, and the Kremlin-connected neo-Nazi Rusich Group. DDG has also allegedly sent money to pro-Russian hacker group Killnet, that has conducted cyberattacks on several Western countries due to their support of Ukraine.

We are working to get the merchandise store running again. In the meantime if you would like to donate to the newly liberated Lugansk People's Republic, you can use the link below. We don't keep any donations, they are sent to reconstruction and humanitarian efforts to those enduring the costs of living under the fascist Kiev regime.

DDG is part of the larger "vatniksphere" who often collaborate on various projects. Recently, they've been coordinating a pitiful coup d'état attempts in Ghana together with Simeon Boikov (@aussiecossack), who's best-known for attacking pensioners and coercing his grandma.

Pro-Vladimir Putin fanatic pushes supporter of Ukraine down steps during rally

Simeon Boikov posts online under the name Aussie Cossack and on Tuesday he posted a video on his YouTube channel at a rally when he shoved an pensioner down steps in Australia

EXCLUSIVE: Australia's number one Putin fan could have his pensioner grandmother THROWN OUT of her own home after using her humble house as security for a $450,000 loan

- 78-year-old 'Aussie Cossack' grandmother Sophia Boikov risks losing her house
- Home of decades was guarantee for loan grandson Simeon Boikov defaulted on
- Finance company demanding widow and pensioner pay more than $500k
- Mrs Boikov claims grandson used 'undue influence' to make her put up house
- Supreme Court could allow seizure of revered church fundraiser house
- Known as 'Mother Boikov' grandma of Putin patriot is celebrated Russian cook

By CANDACE SUTTON FOR DAILY MAIL AUSTRALIA

Sydney's ultra pro-Putin man Simeon Boikov has been accused of coercing his own grandmother into putting up her house to guarantee a loan he defaulted on, after a court revealed the 78-year-old may be thrown out of her own home.

But as was mentioned earlier, DDG is not just a one person (even though Bills sometimes claims otherwise), so let's take a look at some of the administrators of the DDG Telegram group.

Matt M AKA akhMATT sila - US citizen LARPing as a survivalist. Constantly calls for domestic political violence while stocking up on guns, armor and ammo. Prays for the end of society so that he can "kill whoever to take what I want." At some point wanted to join Wagner.

Matt was often grooming the younger members, including David, to more radical thinking and lifestyle. He also likes to collect pro-Russia and Wagner patches and constantly calls for murder of Ukrainian civilians. He often dreams of the collapse of the US society.
