

Pekka Kallioniemi @P_Kallioniemi

Nov 11, 2024 · 18 tweets · P_Kallioniemi/status/1855987581634171085

In today's #vatniksoup, I'll introduce an American far-right social media personality, Nicholas J. Fuentes (@NickJFuentes). He's best-known for his white supremacist, misogynistic and antisemitic rhetoric, and for being the poster boy for the so-called incel movement.

1/17

Like so many from the white supremacist movement, Fuentes dropped out of university after his freshman year. He studied introductory international relations, which apparently made him a geopolitics expert. Nick was introduced to the white supremacist movement at an...

2/17

Fuentes, an Illinois native, started livestreaming during his freshman year at Boston University. He studied politics and international relations and started hosting the political talk show “America First” on the Trump-aligned Right Side Broadcasting Network in February 2017. Fuentes’ show aired nightly on the network and featured far-right political commentary, with a focus on immigration and multiculturalism. Despite an on-air rant where Fuentes encouraged people to “kill the globalists” during an April 19, 2017 livestream, as reported by Media Matters at the time, Right Side Broadcasting continued to host him until he attended the deadly “Unite the Right” rally in Charlottesville, Virginia, on Aug. 12, 2017.

..early age - he took part in the infamous Unite the Right rally in Charlottesville, Virginia. In 2017, Fuentes launched his political talk show “America First”. Initially the show was aired on Trump-aligned Right Side Broadcasting Network, but it was dropped after the rally.

3/17

Right Side Broadcasting, The “Unofficial Version Of Trump TV,” Forced To Apologize For Contributor’s Call To “Kill The Globalists” At CNN

WRITTEN BY MEDIA MATTERS STAFF

PUBLISHED 04/24/17 1:14 PM EDT

Right Side Broadcasting Network (RSBN) host Nick Fuentes went on a violent, on-air tirade, suggesting that it was “time to kill the globalists” who run CNN, adding, “I don’t want CNN to go out of business ... I want the people that run CNN to be arrested and deported or hanged.”

Fuentes’ shows are characterized by Fuentes’ frequent use of jokes and irony to appeal to his young audience while providing plausible deniability for his extreme political views, and his fanatic troll followers are referred to as “Groypers”.

THE GOAL IS TO MOVE CONSERVATISM CLOSER TO WHITE NATIONALISM

In the US, the 'groyper army' seeks to make anti-Semitism mainstream

A brazen Inquisition force, Young America First adherents make waves and headlines in effort to unmask 'fake' conservatives and 'frauds'

By RON KAMPEAS

9 December 2019, 3:53 am

Around 2019, Fuentes and his neo-Nazi buddy Patrick Casey together with the “Groyper Army” started heckling Charlie Kirk’s pro-Trump, right-wing nonprofit Turning Point USA. Fuentes also collaborated with Republican elected officials and conservative activists in order...

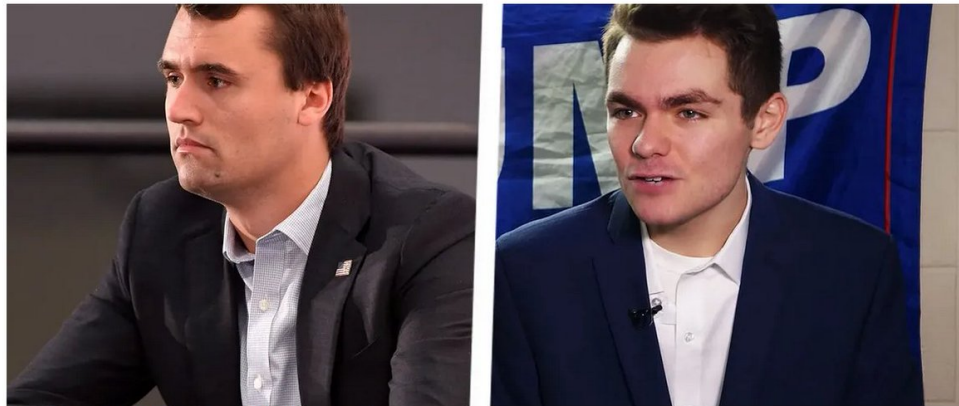

Q Search

Right-wing student group Turning Point USA struggles to bar white nationalists from gathering

Charlie Kirk's right-wing youth group faces possible conflict with Nick Fuentes' white nationalist "groyperers"

By ZACHARY PETRIZZO

PUBLISHED JULY 17, 2021 6:00AM (EDT)

Charlie Kirk and Nick Fuentes (Photo illustration by Salon/Getty Images)

...to push the Republican Party and US politics into a more hard-right, authoritarian ideological position. Nick also launched AFPAC, a political conference that brought together white nationalists and far-right figures. One of them was of course Marjorie Taylor Greene.

6/17

August 02, 2023

by Hannah Gais and Megan Squire

A web and graphics designer who collaborated with white nationalist Nick Fuentes worked for pro-Donald Trump lawmaker Rep. Marjorie Taylor Greene, R-Ga., throughout 2022 and into 2023, a Hatewatch investigation found.

Fuentes' aggressive style appeals to angry young men, and he was one of the key figures in the "Stop the Steal" movement, which claimed that Donald Trump had won the 2020 US presidential elections. He even floated the idea of killing some Republican lawmakers in retribution.

7/17

'STOP THE STEAL'

Soon after Trump started to promote lies about the outcome of the 2020 election, Fuentes emerged as one of the president's most loyal defenders on the national stage. Alongside such extremists as Ali Alexander, Patrick Casey, Alex Jones and Timothy "Baked Alaska" Gionet, he galvanized crowds of young, almost exclusively white men at so-called "Stop the Steal" events across the country, which focused on upending Joe Biden's victory and installing Trump as president for a second term he did not win. Some Fuentes allies, such as Australian livestreamer Tor Brookes, known as "Catboy Kami" online, recorded themselves harassing Biden supporters who were people of color, according to the Australian news outlet ABC. Fuentes, and fans waving his "America First"-branded flag, appeared at events in Arizona, Pennsylvania and Washington, D.C., in the runup to what later led to the "Stop the Steal" rally in D.C. and the attack on the U.S. Capitol building on Jan. 6, 2021.

Fuentes also hyped outrage over the election results through his livestreams, which he held at that time on the fringe, youth-targeted gaming platform DLive. Fuentes' livestreams in the runup to Jan. 6 took on a markedly more vicious tone. On Jan. 4, 2021, he appeared to float the idea of killing some Republican lawmakers as retribution for not actively promoting Trump's election lies before seemingly walking it back to express something more equivocal.

"Republicans just screwed us every day for two months straight, and we have no recourse. Why? Because we have no leverage. What are we going to do to them? What can you and I do to a state legislator besides kill them?" he said. "We should not do that. I'm not advising that, but I mean what else can you do, right? Nothing."

Several media outlets reported that Fuentes was part of the group that attacked the Capitol on January 6th. He allegedly shouted provocations for the rioters to “keep moving towards the Capitol” and that they were “taking the Capitol back”.

8/17

In Nov 2022, Donald Trump hosted Nick and Kanye West over dinner at Mar-a-Lago. According to a source interviewed by Axios, Trump “seemed very taken” by Nick and they added that “there was a lot of fawning back and forth.” The meeting was later widely criticized.

9/17

Trump blames Kanye West for bringing Nick Fuentes as dinner guest

BY BRAD DRESS - 11/27/22 1:30 PM ET

Former President Trump on Saturday said Ye, the rapper formerly known as Kanye West, is a “seriously troubled man” whom he was trying to help, but also blamed the controversial musician for a dinner in which Trump says Ye brought along a known white supremacist.

Trump said on Truth Social that Ye brought far-right activist Nick Fuentes to the dinner on Tuesday night and that he did not know who Fuentes was.

“So I help a seriously troubled man, who just happens to be black, Ye (Kanye West), who has been decimated in his business and virtually everything else,” Trump wrote, “and who has always been good to me, by allowing his request for a meeting at Mar-a-Lago, alone, so that I can give him very much needed ‘advice.’”

Most Popular

- 1 Trump says Senate G leader candidates mu agree to recess...
- 2 Gallego defeats Lake Arizona Senate race
- 3 GOP inches closer to retaining House majority

Updated Nov 26, 2022 - Politics & Policy

Trump talks with white nationalist Nick Fuentes at Mar-a-Lago dinner

Jonathan Swan, Zachary Basu

Nick Fuentes (center) with Alex Jones at a "Stop the Steal" rally in Georgia on Nov. 19, 2020. Photo: Zach Roberts/NurPhoto via Getty Images

Nov 30, 2022 - World

Netanyahu says it was a "mistake" for Trump to dine with Kanye

Barak Ravid

Trump and Netanyahu at the White House in 2020. Photo: Yuri Gripas/Abaca/Bloomberg via Getty Images

🕒 3 months old

Donald Trump repeatedly refused to disavow the outspoken antisemite and white supremacist Nick Fuentes after they spoke over dinner at his Mar-a-Lago resort, rejecting the advice from advisers over fears he might alienate a section of his base, two people familiar with the situation said.

Over time, Fuentes has become overly critical of Trump, especially in 2024. Fuentes called for his followers to pressure Trump to adopt even more extreme positions on immigration and race, and he urged Trump to fire Susie Wiles, now his White House Chief of Staff pick.

10/17

 daily dot

Trending Tech Politics Pop Culture Memes Labor Hacks TikTok

TECH

Groypers launch all-out meme war on Trump's campaign team

Does anyone remember Groyper War 1?

David Covucci

Posted on August 12 2024 10:24 am CDT

AI/Shutterstock (Licensed)

If you logged on to Truth Social this morning, the top trends weren't praising former President Donald Trump or criticizing his opponent, Vice President Kamala Harris.

Instead, they called his campaign manager and senior adviser traitors to America.

Welcome to Groyper War 2.

A typical post under the hashtag dubbed the duo, Susan Wiles and Chris LaCivita, secret saboteurs working to sink Trump's campaign.

"Our goal is to fire #TraitorWiles and #TraitorLaCivita to save this campaign from the foreign monied interests, the lobbyists, the Never Trumpers, the neocons, and the swamp creatures," said one.

In Nov 2024, after Trump supporters dressed in garbage bags, Fuentes commented that this characterized Trumpism as "a giant cult-like scam," and that Trump supporters are "slavishly devoted" people who would "just eat up anything."

11/17

The screenshot shows a Newsweek article page. The main headline is "Conservative Influencer Slams Donald Trump Supporters: 'It Is a Cult'". Below the headline, it says "Published Nov 02, 2024 at 5:38 PM EDT" and "Updated Nov 07, 2024 at 3:52 PM EST". The article features a video player with a play button and a duration of 00:43. The video thumbnail shows Donald Trump speaking at a podium with a sign that says "TRUMP WILL FIX IT TRUMP". To the right of the video player, there is a "Trending" section with three items: "01 Americans Want Job Ads To List Salary" (4 comments), "02 Is There Mail on Veterans Day? Post Office, UPS, FedEx Hours" (1 comment), and "03 Video Seems to Show North Korean Soldier Watching Raunchy Videos in Russia" (21 comments).

"That was the moment when I realized Trumpism was a cult, that was the moment when I realized liberals are right. That was the moment when I realized it has gone too far, it is Frankenstein's monster, we've created a Gollum. It is a problem."

He said, "It is a cult," later referring to Trumpism as "a giant cult-like scam." Fuentes noted that there is a "slavish devotion of the [Trump] followers, they'll just eat up anything."

When it comes to Russia and Ukraine, Nicky has clearly chosen his side: at AFPAC in 2022, he spoke highly of Putin and asked the audience, "Can we get a round of applause for Russia?" This was followed by roaring applause and "Putin!" chants.

12/17

“Can we get a round of applause for Russia?” asked Nick Fuentes, on stage last week at a white nationalist event. Amid a roar of applause for the Russian president, just days after he invaded Ukraine, many attendees responded by shouting: “Putin! Putin!”

It would be easy to dismiss the America First Political Action Conference (AFPAC) in Orlando, Florida, as a radical fringe. But speeches by two Republican members of Congress - one in person, the other via video - guaranteed national attention and controversy.

CPAC

This article is more than 2 years old

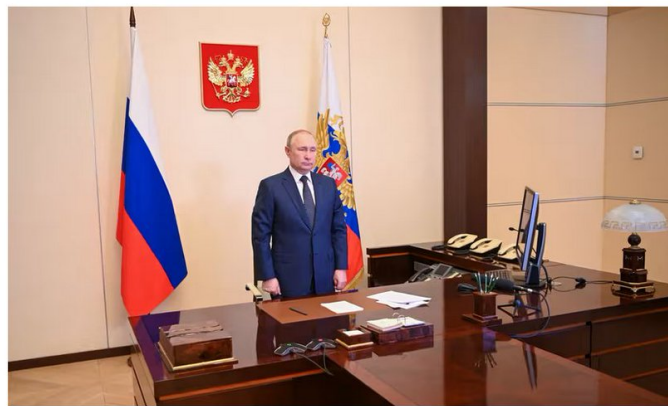

‘Key to white survival’: how Putin has morphed into a far-right savior

The Russian president’s ‘strong man’ image and disdain for liberals has turned him into a hero for white nationalists

Sergio Olmos

Sat 5 Mar 2022 08:00 CET

Share

Putin is now seen as the upholder of traditional Christianity. Photograph: Sputnik/Reuters

Nick and Kanye were also Alex Jones’ guests at InfoWars, where Nick said again that he’s “very pro-Putin” and “very pro-Russia”. After this, both guests started praising Hitler. Naturally, this wasn’t the only incident where Nicky has defended the infamous Austrian painter.

Right after Russia launched their full-scale invasion against Ukraine, Fuentes praised “czar Putin” for “liberating Ukraine from the Great Satan and from the evil empire in the world, which is the United States.”

14/17

POLITICS

White nationalist Nick Fuentes praised Putin for trying to 'liberate Ukraine' 2 weeks after GOP lawmakers attended an event he hosted

Kelsey Vlamis Mar 17, 2022, 5:11 AM EET

Share Save

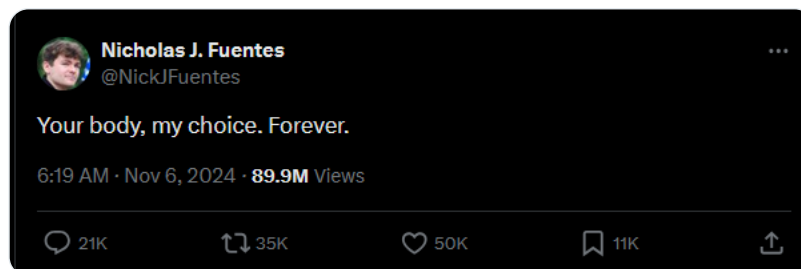

Nick Fuentes seen with his followers in Washington D.C. on November 14, 2020. Zach D Roberts/Getty Images

- White nationalist figure Nick Fuentes said Russia is not being "unreasonable" in its invasion of Ukraine.
- Less than two weeks ago, Marjorie Taylor Greene and Paul Gosar attended an event hosted by Fuentes.
- Greene said she did not know Fuentes, who at one point during the conference urged applause for Russia.

After Trump's victory, Fuentes was again raising controversy, when he tweeted "Your body, my choice. Forever." The phrase became extremely popular on many social media platforms, including TikTok, Facebook and Reddit. For this, Fuentes' alleged home address was posted online.

15/17

"Your Body, My Choice" slogan originator Nick Fuentes doxxed amid backlash over online harassment

Nick Fuentes, far-right figure and "Your body, my choice" phrase originator, doxxed online as backlash intensifies.

Pop Culture & Art | November 11, 2024

Photo: AFP

In another incident, Nick accidentally streamed gay porn at the end of his live stream. According to him, his stream was "hacked by Jews", calling the incident an "easily disprovable nonsense". Whatever the truth is, we support your freedom to express your sexuality, Nicky!

16/17

Last night after my stream went offline, my Cozy channel was hijacked by a known hacker purporting to represent IDF Unit 8200. The hacker targeted a vulnerability in the webapp that my team uses to automatically stream the looped pre-show intro "lobby" of my stream on Cozy.

This is why the "hacked material" which was streamed did not appear live on Rumble or in the replay VOD on either Rumble or Cozy. If the material originated from my OBS streaming software like my show does, it would have appeared on both platforms during the livestream and in both VODs.

Instead, the hacked material was broadcast only on Cozy and did not appear in a replay VOD on either site, because it was broadcast from the webapp which automatically streams a playlist of videos exclusively on Cozy before I begin streaming my show.

The hacker exploited a vulnerability in the web app to gain access and create multiple playlists of pornographic videos which he streamed to my Cozy channel after my stream went offline. He included messages in the title of each playlist offering money to my development team to leak information to him.

He also included his Telegram handle in those messages and in a watermark overlayed on the pornographic material he streamed on the channel. The name of the Telegram account was recently changed to "Am Yisrael Chai" in Hebrew but was originally called something else, and is most likely not Israeli intelligence.

There is evidence that this hacker has been involved in similar attacks against other streamers and online communities over the past several years.

Since the hack, my development team has investigated the incident and found that Cozy was unaffected, no data was retrieved, and that there was no "leak" from my team. The hacker targeted a vulnerability in an application used internally to create the automatic lobby.

Laura Loomer, Jewish activist close to Trump, downplays ties to antisemites

Far-right US provocateur, embraced by Holocaust-denier Nick Fuentes and appearing on conspiracy theory network Infowars, is under scrutiny after flying on ex-president's plane

By RON KAMPEAS

27 September 2024, 11:22 pm

My book titled “Vatnik Soup - The Ultimate Guide to Russian Disinformation” has been published, you can order it here (shipping only 4,7€ until the end of 2024!):

THE ULTIMATE GUIDE TO RUSSIAN DISINFORMATION

Vatnik Soup — Kleart

Do your friends believe Ukraine is full of neo-Nazis and secret biolabs? Do you feel overwhelmed by propaganda and lies every time you go online? Does your mom think Tucker Carlson sounds reasonable?...

<https://www.kleart.eu/webshop/p/vatnik-soup>

• • •