Nella #vatniksoup di oggi parleremo delle operazioni ibride nell'ambito delle operazioni d'informazione. Le operazioni ibride sono un mix di guerra politica e metodi di influenza come l'uso di fabbriche di troll/bot e la diffusione di fake news, propaganda e disinformazione.

1/22

In questo thread, mostreremo quattro casi di studio su come gli agenti russi conducono operazioni ibride in tre diversi continenti. Tutti hanno caratteristiche distinte, ma si basano sugli stessi meccanismi, come l'uso dei social media per diffondere il messaggio.

SOCIAL MEDIA'S ROLE IN 'HYBRID STRATEGIES'

AUTHOR: THOMAS ELKJER NISSEN

PREPARED BY THE
NATO STRATEGIC COMMUNICATIONS
CENTRE OF EXCELLENCE

Le operazioni ibride spesso combinano il mondo reale con scenari orchestrati e pianificati tramite attività online. A volte i sostenitori della Russia tentano di mobilitare le persone per eventi reali come proteste, gonfiandole sui social e siti di fake news.

3/22

The image is a screenshot of a news article from CNN Business. The header shows the CNN logo and the word 'BUSINESS' in a bold, sans-serif font. To the right of the logo are the words 'Markets Tech Media Success Video'. Below the header, the article title is 'Russian trolls created Facebook events seen by more than 300,000 users'. The author is listed as 'by Donie O'Sullivan @CNMoney' and the date is 'January 26, 2018: 5:13 PM ET'. There are social media sharing icons for email, Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, and a more options menu. The main image is a video player showing a protest in Houston. The video shows a large crowd of people, with one person in the foreground holding up a Confederate battle flag. The video player has a red bar at the bottom with the text 'Russian trolls organized protests in Houston'. Below the video player, there is a caption: 'Posing as American activists, Russian government-linked trolls created 129 Facebook events between 2015 and 2017.'

Gli eventi pro-Cremlino che sono stati gonfiati sui social raramente attirano una grande folla nel mondo reale. Secondo un gruppo di Facebook, una protesta del 2024 a Bucarest avrebbe dovuto raccogliere oltre 50.000 persone, ma alla fine si è presentato solo l'organizzatore.

Forse uno degli esempi più noti di operazioni ibride proviene dagli Stati Uniti - nel 2016, un uomo di nome Matt Skiber è diventato attivo nella sfera politica USA. È stato molto attivo in politica e ha organizzato eventi come la manifestazione “March for Trump” a New York.

WASHINGTON — When the message from Matt Skiber arrived in the mailbox of the Facebook account for Donald J. Trump's Florida campaign in early August 2016, it raised no flags, despite its slightly awkward attempts at colloquial American English.

Ha preparato megafoni, disegnato manifesti, scritto comunicati stampa e ha parlato con altri sostenitori di Trump. In realtà, Matt Skiber non esisteva - era un "clandestino digitale" creato da un lavoratore di una troll farm che si spacciava per un sostenitore di Trump.

69. On or about August 2, 2016, Defendants and their co-conspirators used the false U.S. persona “Matt Skiber” Facebook account to send a private message to a real Facebook account, “Florida for Trump,” set up to assist then-candidate Trump in the state of Florida. In the first message, Defendants and their co-conspirators wrote:

Hi there! I'm a member of Being Patriotic online community. Listen, we've got an idea. Florida is still a purple state and we need to paint it red. If we lose Florida, we lose America. We can't let it happen, right? What about organizing a YUGE pro-Trump flash mob in every Florida town? We are currently reaching out to local activists and we've got the folks who are okay to be in charge of organizing their events almost everywhere in FL. However, we still need your support. What do you think about that? Are you in?

I clandestini digitali sono estremamente efficaci e risorse molto economiche che possono essere impiegate e organizzate rapidamente. Sono anche facilmente potenziati dall'aiuto di troll/bot farm. Per questo motivo la Russia vi ha investito pesantemente per oltre un decennio.

A November 7, 2016 post from the IRA-controlled Twitter account @Pamela_Moore13 was retweeted by Donald J. Trump Jr.<sup>103</sup>

On September 19, 2017, President Trump's personal account @realDonaldTrump responded to a tweet from the IRA-controlled account @10_gop (the backup account of @TEN_GOP, which had already been deactivated by Twitter). The tweet read: “We love you, Mr. President!”<sup>104</sup>

IRA employees monitored the reaction of the Trump campaign and, later, Trump Administration officials to their tweets. For example, on August 23, 2016, the IRA-controlled persona “Matt Skiber” Facebook account sent a message to a U.S. Tea Party activist, writing that “Mr. Trump posted about our event in Miami! This is great!”<sup>105</sup> The IRA employee included a screenshot of candidate Trump's Facebook account, which included a post about the August 20, 2016 political rallies organized by the IRA.

VIRTUAL HATRED:
HOW RUSSIA TRIED TO START A RACE WAR
IN THE UNITED STATES

William J. Aceves*

During the 2016 U.S. presidential election, the Russian government engaged in a sophisticated strategy to influence the U.S. political system and manipulate American democracy. While most news reports have focused on the cyber-attacks aimed at Democratic Party leaders and possible contacts between Russian officials and the Trump presidential campaign, a more pernicious intervention took place. Throughout the campaign, Russian operatives created hundreds of fake personas on social media platforms and then posted thousands of advertisements and messages that sought to promote racial divisions in the United States. This was a coordinated propaganda effort. Some Facebook and Twitter posts denounced the Black Lives Matter movement and others condemned White nationalist groups. Some called for violence. To be clear, these were posts by fake personas created by Russian operatives. But their effects were real. The purpose of this strategy was to manipulate public opinion on racial issues and disrupt the political process. This Article examines Russia's actions and considers whether they violate the international prohibitions against racial discrimination and hate speech.

Russian Mайдan-3 PsyOp to culminate in March-May

TETIANA LOZOVENKO — TUESDAY, 27 FEBRUARY 2024, 16:38

The Ukrainian President's Intelligence Committee has stated that the Russian psychological operation against Ukraine will conclude in the coming weeks, and Russia expects to shake the situation and inflict a military defeat on Ukraine in the east by the first half of June.

Quote: "The special operation Mайдan-3 will culminate in March-May 2024, and in the coming weeks, the enemy will cease all efforts to spread narratives harmful to global security and incite conflicts – both within Ukraine and in other parts of the world where Ukraine is effectively supported.

The campaign methodology is traditional for the Russian special services: to question the legitimacy of government decisions made in Ukraine after 20 May, to instil fear and despair, to artificially clash civilians against the military, to foment quarrels with our allies, and to spread all kinds of conspiracy theories in society.

This is happening in the context of the Russian Federation's public statements about the development of new types of superweapons, which the Russians claim will ensure Russia's technical superiority over the West for the next decade. This is done with the intention to convey that resisting Russia's goals in Ukraine is dangerous for the world, and Russia will pressure other countries to engage in direct dialogue on Ukraine without our participation.

Furthermore, the Russians will use their own agents of influence in Ukraine and around the world to organise various protests, deliberately undermining the process of exchanging prisoners of war.

Russia's Lies in the Central African Republic

Russia's disinformation and propaganda ecosystem falsely portrays the Wagner Group as playing a positive role in nations such as CAR. Although the Wagner Group has been deployed in CAR since 2018, Russian officials still refer to the group's forces as "Russian instructors" when discussing the group's activities, a narrative that continued after Prigozhin's death in August 2023. Russian officials quoted in Russian state-funded media claim that Russian instructors have "saved" CAR and are "strengthening peace and stability" to bring a "lasting peace." The U.S.-sanctioned Officer's Union of International Security (OUIS or "COSI") serves as a front company for Wagner Group operations in CAR. Its U.S.-sanctioned director, Aleksandr Ivanov, justifies Wagner's presence in CAR, saying "The fighters of the Wagner Group remain in CAR, so the inhabitants of the Republic can sleep peacefully! ...the Republic has become a safe place for the life and development of the local population."

PARIS/DAKAR, June 21 (Reuters) - After armed men killed  nine Chinese nationals at a gold mine in Central African Republic in March, a video circulated on the internet saying France had secretly ordered the attack and planned to discredit Russian mercenary group Wagner in the country.

In the video, a Central African Republic rebel fighter says "the French want to drive Wagner out of Africa".

The clip rang alarm bells in Paris at a media monitoring unit within the foreign ministry created last year as part of a broad diplomatic strategy to revive ties in France's former African colonies after years of waning influence.

By December 2021, proof of Wagner's presence in Mali emerged, even as the Malian government denied their presence.

A pro-junta and pro-Russia group called Collectif pour la défense des militaires (CDM) successfully lobbied the junta in April 2022 to ban the French government-funded public broadcasters RFI and France 24 from Mali's airwaves. Meanwhile, social networks such as Russosphere were gaining traction with posts accusing Ukrainians of "Nazism" and France of modern-day "colonialism."

In August 2022, France completed its withdrawal of forces from the country. And in June, the UN Security Council voted to end its peacekeeping mission, MINUSMA, in Mali. Earlier that month, Mali asked the UN peacekeeping force to leave "without delay," citing a "crisis of confidence" between Malian authorities and the UN mission. Later reports would suggest that Wagner helped engineer the UN's departure.
